PREFACE

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF 1902:

YOUR secretary submits for your consideration the Fifth Report published in connection with the fifteenth year after graduation of the Class.

Out of a membership of 698, replies have been received from 647. There are 20 men whose addresses are known and who have been communicated with either by telephone or telegraph, or both, who have not replied. These are listed in a special place in the back of the book. In addition there are 31 men for whom the secretary has been unable to find any address.

This Report is the most complete yet published. More work has been put in collecting the data than ever before, but it has cost more money. It is regrettable to have to state that a considerable sum was spent, we might say unnecessarily, owing to the thoughtlessness of a great many members who failed to reply to the first and second notices and who sent in their data only in response to a telegram, of which there were nearly one hundred sent to all parts of the United States.

You may criticize your secretary for spending money in this way, but it has seemed to him that the Report was of little or no value unless it contained as much data as could be collected and that, therefore, every effort should be made to get some reply from every man whose address was known.

As the men listed in the back did not seem to care enough about the Class to send any information, the secretary has assumed that they would not care to receive this Report and none has been sent them, nor will it be until he receives a specific request from them.

It is hoped that every man will report any errors in fact or typography which appear in his life.

In closing, the secretary wishes to take this opportunity to express his thanks to Messrs. J. O. LOW, of New York, C. H. SCHWEPPE, of Chicago, and G. O. CARPENTER, Jr., of St. Louis, who assisted him greatly in drumming up men in their vicinities.

The work in connection with the preparation of the Report was done by the Harvard Alumni Association.

It will be five years before another Report is published, and it is hoped that members of the Class will remember to inform the secretary promptly of changes of address and occupation, of marriages, births of children, etc., so that the Class Records may be continually kept up to date. If each man shoulders his part of the burden, it will save the Class money and the secretary much mental anguish.

BARRETT WENDELL, JR.,
Secretary.

IN complying with the request that I give an account of my career since graduation, I shall omit that part covered by the account published in the Decennial Report of June, 1912, except to supply information inadvertently omitted therefrom.

During the early part of 1907 I was Assistant to the Secretary of the North Pasadena Land and Water Company.

In 1909, after my return east from California, I became Assistant to the Secretary of the Publishers Association of New York City, in which capacity I organized and directed the Anti-Free Publicity campaign for that Association, and also had charge of the newspaper delivery matters which that Association managed collectively for the New York City newspapers. Later in 1909, I became Assistant to the Manager of the American Newspaper Publishers Association. Much of my work in that capacity was in connection with the Legal and Labor Union matters which that Association managed collectively for the newspapers throughout America. I also had charge of the Anti-Free Publicity campaign which this Association took over and made national in its scope.

In November, 1911, I was married to Emily Treadwell Clark, of Salem and Clifton, Mass. She is an alumna of Wheaton Seminary, now Wheaton College, Norton, Mass.

When the Decennial Report was published in 1912, I was General Manager and Secretary of the Daily Newspaper Association, with headquarters in New York City.

In 1913 I was elected Manager of the American Newspaper Publishers Association, Bureau of Advertising, also with headquarters in New York City.

Early in 1914 I had practically completed arrangements to undertake the business and editorial management of a newspaper in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., when I was offered the appointment as Secretary to the President of the Borough of Manhattan, City of New York. Inasmuch as I had for many years desired to enter the public service, this offer was decidedly attractive to me and I accepted it.

Early in 1915, I was appointed Secretary of the Borough of Manhattan, City of New York, and am at present holding that position. I am also Chairman of the Central Committee of the Local School Boards of the Borough; Secretary of the Local Improvement Boards of the Borough; a member of the Budget Committee of the Borough; a member of the Board of Promotions of the Borough; and one of the Board of Directors of the Credit Union of Employees of the City of New York.

In February, 1917, I was the official representative of the Borough of Manhattan, City of New York, at the Joint Legislative Hearing of Committees of the Senate and Assembly of the State of New York, held in Albany, N. Y., on the proposed agreement between the City of New York and the New York Central Railroad Company, in connection with the readjustment of the track and terminal facilities of that railroad in New York City.

I am a member of the County Committee of the Republican organization of New York County. I have been a delegate to the Republican State Convention in 1915, held in New York City, the Republican State Convention in 1916, held in Saratoga, N. Y., and the Republican National Convention in 1916, held in Chicago.

PUBLICATIONS: I have contributed articles to newspapers and magazines and have also written for publication in pamphlet and book form. I have also written a great deal of advertising copy. I edited and published, in 1909-11, the Free Publicity Bulletin—propaganda against press agents et al.—of the American Newspaper Publishers Association; 1911-13 the Advertising Bulletin of the Daily Newspaper Association; 1913-14, the Bulletin of the American Newspaper Publishers Association, Bureau of Advertising.

Among the articles or books which I have written are: "The Free Publicity Evil;" "The Value of Newspaper Advertising;" "What is the best Advertising Medium;" "Free Publicity and the Press Agent;" "An Analysis of Advertising;" "The Value of the Daily Newspaper as an Advertising Medium" [this was originally delivered by me as a lecture in the Department of Journalism, New York University. It was later published and used as a textbook in the departments or schools of journalism in various universities]; "Advertising Statistics;" "Facts and Figures regarding Advertising;" "Welches Reklamemittel ist das beste?" [this was published December, 1912, in Mitteilungen des Vereins Deutscher Reklamefachleute E. V., Berlin]; "Newspaper Advertising;" "The Public Service as a Career" [this was originally delivered by me as an address at Amherst College]; "Young Men and Politics;" "The Powers, Functions, and Duties of Borough Government in the City of New York;" "The Activities of the Borough of Manhattan, City of New York;" "The Port and Terminal Needs of the City of New York;" "A Proper Trackage and Terminal Agreement between the New York Central Railroad and the City of New York;" annual and special reports on public and private business; miscellaneous articles, as well as public and private addresses delivered in various parts of the United States, on advertising, on newspaper publication, on municipal government and activities, and on general matters; political articles and speeches delivered in New York, in connection with the recent municipal, state, and national campaigns.

KILBURN ELIE ADAMS

Born	Cambridge, Mass., Jan. 18, 1882.
Parents	Kilburn, Cecelia Amelia (La Pierre) Adams.
School	Cambridge Latin School, Cambridge, Mass.
Degrees	A.B. 1902 (1905); S.B. 1903.
Married	Elizabeth Florence Gilbert, Providence, R. I., Oct. 19, 1908.
Children	Kilburn Elie, Jr., Oct. 23, 1909; Gilbert Crocker, March 6, 1911; Elizabeth Cecelia, March 20, 1913.
Occupation	Mechanical engineer.
Address	(home) 55 Manning St., Needham, Mass.; (business) 39 Boylston St., Boston, Mass.

AT the time of the Decennial Reunion I was employed with the Boston & Albany Railroad as mechanical engineer, taking care of the mechanical and electrical design and construction work for the entire system. As outlined in the Class Report at that time, the previous years had furnished me valuable experience in a wide field of engineering and executive work.

On April 15, 1913, I resigned from my position with the Boston & Albany Railroad to enter another line of public service corporation work, as head of the incandescent lamp division of the Edison Electric Illuminating Company of Boston, a position which I still hold. This is primarily an executive position but it frequently calls for engineering knowledge and experience, so that I have not given up the engineering field entirely. My headquarters are at the Company's service building, 1165 Massachusetts Ave., Boston.

I am still actively interested in athletics and during the past two years have devoted those activities mostly to tennis, which I have found a source of enjoyable recreation and exercise.

MEMBER: The American Society of Mechanical Engineers, Association of Harvard Engineers, National Electric Light Association.

ALFRED ADAMSON, Jr.

Born	Philadelphia, Pa., May 31, 1880.

Degree	(c. 1898-1899.)
Unmarried
Occupation	Mining.
Address	71 Wall St., New York City and 1111 Corona St., Denver, Colo.

I AM at present Treasurer of the Manchester Mining Company, producers of tungsten and manganese, in New York City.

MEMBER: Military Order Loyal Legion of the United States, Massachusetts Commandery.

EMIL AHLBORN

Born Phillips Beach, Marblehead, Mass., Oct. 6, 1879.
Parents Henry Christian, Emily (Buffum) Ahlborn.
School Noble and Greenough's School, Boston, Mass.
Degree A.B. 1902 (1903).
Unmarried
Occupation Portrait painter.
Address (home) 258 Marlborough St., Boston, Mass.; (business) 305 Fenway Studio Bldg., Boston, Mass.

ON graduating from Harvard I began at once to study drawing and painting — for which I had acquired a taste from a year and a half residence abroad during 1895-96 — at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts under Messrs. Hale, Benson, and Tarbell. In 1904 and 1906 I went to Europe, travelling and copying in the Louvre in Paris and in the Pinacothek in Munich. In 1903-09 I was again in Europe for a year and a half, living most of the time in Paris. In 1912 I went again to Europe, going to Madrid to study the works of Velasquez, and in 1914 I went to London, leaving for Switzerland a fortnight before war began, in which place I stayed at Ouchy-Lausanne (French Switzerland) until January, 1915, when I returned, via Italy, to America, without having been in Germany.

The advantage of having the daily papers of England, France, Germany, and Switzerland was inestimable and gave me lights upon the great war from every angle. The telegrams from the English, French, Belgian, German, Austrian, Russian, Servian, etc. fronts, posted usually twice a day in our large cosmopolitan hotel, were an added interest.

I have had pictures in the Paris Salon in 1909, in the Pittsburgh Carnegie Institute in 1911, in the Philadelphia Academy in 1912, the St. Louis Art Gallery, 1912, in the Loan Exhibition of Portraits by Living Artists, Copley Hall, Boston, 1914, and in smaller exhibitions. From April 22 to May 4, 1912, I gave the first exhibition of my own works at the Copley Gallery, Boston.

I have served on the purchasing and hanging committee of the Public School Art League of Boston.

PUBLICATION: Pamphlet: "Some English Opinions."

MEMBER: Harvard Club, Harvard Musical Association, Copley Society, Public School Art League, Boston; Harvard Club, New York.

CHARLES EDWARD ALDRICH, Jr.

Born Roxbury, Mass., Sept. 6, 1880.
 Parents Charles Edward, Jeanie (Morton) Aldrich.

 Unmarried
 Occupation Shoe manufacturer.
 Address (home) 29 Clinton St., Brooklyn, N. Y.; (business) Box 44, Pratt Station, Brooklyn, N. Y.

AFTER graduation I took an extended trip to the Mediterranean countries.

In the fall of 1903 I started work for Charles E. Cotting, Real Estate Trustee. In 1906 I became associated with Stone & Webster in their Corporation Department. In 1911 I came to New York, and have been ever since with Thomas & Co., children's shoe manufacturers, of Brooklyn. Anyone needing children's shoes in 36-pair lots please take notice.

MEMBER: Harvard Clubs of Boston, New York, and Long Island; Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Born	Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 29, 1880.
Parents	William Amos, Mary (Shaw) Bancroft.
School	Cambridge Latin School, Cambridge, Mass.
Degree	A.B. 1902.
Married	Charlotte Nickerson, Winchesler, Mass., June 1, 1909.
Children	Malcolm, July 12, 1911; William Nickerson, March 29, 1913.
Occupation	Treasurer, Boston News Bureau Company.
Address	(home) 12 Ware St., Cambridge, Mass.; (business) 30 Kilby St., Boston, Mass.

I HAVE had a varied business experience. It has included several years in the banking house of Kidder, Peabody and Company, Boston, which I entered after graduation; two years in the wholesale coal business with C. H. Sprague and Son, Boston; and the financial newspaper business, my present occupation. I am now Treasurer of the Boston News Bureau Company, publishers of the Boston News Bureau. While in college I entered the Massachusetts militia as a private in Battery A, Field Artillery. I served in this organization for seven years, holding the rank of second lieutenant when I resigned. During the first few years after graduation I kept up athletics to a considerable degree, especially rowing. In this I had the pleasure of licking Yale three times in succession, as a member of the Harvard Graduates' crew.

The above is my account in the Decennial Report. Since then my business has been the same. My activities outside of business have not been large, none of them along public lines.

MEMBER: Harvard and Union Boat Clubs, Boston; Oakley Country Club of Belmont.

MY life since graduation has been noteworthy in that it has contained nothing noteworthy. There have been no "high lights" and the "dead flat calm" of a painfully normal middle class existence has been untroubled save by minor family troubles, such as illnesses, etc. I have held a job with but one firm since graduation and like some others am still "watchfully waiting" for that opportunity which will make me the future financial genius of Boston. Hope is still "springing eternally" from my "human breast" and seems to be a large part of my "stock in trade" at present.

I have been able to keep the wolf from the door so far and even feed it a few scraps, but if the cost of living keeps moving skyward I may have to deny it the scraps.

I am at present growing fat, both mentally and physically, and on the whole am contented.

Two or three years ago I ran for the School Committee of Lexington, but got so well licked I decided I hadn't been running at all. If I had, I must have had my reverse clutch in. So I have decided that real merit is not appreciated by the "dear people" in these days of material ideals, and am not going to worry myself (for I seemed to disturb no one else) by running for office again. Also running, at 195 lbs., is not becoming to me.

I am an assistant Scout-master but a "punk" one.

PUBLICATIONS: Have translated a Boston & Maine time-table so that by using it, in conjunction with one of Roger Babson's charts, the reason that the road is "busted" is apparent.

Occupation	Architect.
Address	Wayland, Mass.

AFTER completing the architectural course at Harvard, I worked as a draughtsman in Boston until April, 1906, when I was one of the men sent to San Francisco to help in the rebuilding which followed the great fire. I spent nearly three most happy and interesting years in California, then returned East. Since the decennial, I have lost my devoted and much loved mother. I was married in 1913; have a small house, which I am slowly finishing myself, in the woods at Wayland, Mass., in which place I am practicing architecture.

Miners strike in 1903-04. Later I went to Wyoming and played professional baseball in Oregon and Washington.

Then from 1905 to 1908 I worked and studied the lumber business at Winlock and Raymond, Wash., and also was private secretary to State Senator J. A. Veness, and served as a clerk in the Washington State Senate.

In 1908 I went south through California to Mexico, where I inspected lumber for the Southern Pacific Railroad Company at Empalme, state of Sonora, for one year. I then went to Guatemala, Honduras, and Costa Rica, arriving at Panama in February, 1910. Since that time I have been connected with the Panama Railroad Company and Steamship Line with the exception of about twenty months, eight of which I spent at Portland, Ore., and last year, when I was married and went to the San Francisco Exposition, returning to Panama in December, 1915, via New Orleans and Havana. I then became connected again with the Panama Railroad Company, where I am at present located.

IN the Class Book of June, 1902, it was stated that I was going into temperance work. That was what I expected to do. I went to Harvard with a view to preparing for that sort of thing. As a boy, I had seen many charming people much injured by the evils of excessive drinking; I could see no other work that I cared to try to do that I thought offered so fine an opportunity to do some good. I took a lot of courses at Harvard along the line of my interest; and was president of a club for the study of the liquor problem. The summer of 1901 I went to New York City and worked in the office of the Anti-saloon League under Dr.

J. Q. A. Henry and Dr. Howard H. Russell, the latter the founder of the League. Dr. Russell suggested that, after graduating, I take a position in charge of the office work of the New York State Anti-saloon League, to which I delightedly agreed. A month before Commencement he came to see me and told me that when he presented my name to the trustees or directors, there was an objection to me on religious grounds. He did not know what the objection was. I talked over with him where I stood on religion, although I thought I had previously avoided conversation on the subject with anyone connected with the League. A motto of the League was, "Unite on the points on which we agree, disregard the matters on which we differ." I was willing to do that if the League was willing. However, after Dr. Russell found what my religious views were, he thought it was better for me not to work with the League in the position he had in mind for me. I could see no way to work in the line I desired, so fine college hopes and dreams of doing some good along the temperance line were put into cold storage (They are still there.) Commencement afternoon I went to the Remington Typewriter office to look for a stenographic position, for I had to get at making a living at once.

I didn't want to teach, and was not prepared for it. There was only one other thing I could do — stenographic work. I answered an ad. in the Transcript, and soon was working as a stenographer for Lawley, the yacht builder, with whom I remained a year and a half. I was anxious to go to Europe on a cattle boat; that was the only way I could have gone, so far as I could see.

Giving that up, I went down to New York and met Mr. Edward Robinson, Secretary of the American Federation of Labor. He suggested that if I wanted to do some good, I should go down to New Jersey and write up the conditions of child labor in the glass-blowing industry; I went to Bridgeton, N. J., saw some things, but my money gave out and I went to work in the gas fixture factory of Mr. Rice and son.

Later, I went to Brooklyn and worked as an agent for the International Correspondence Schools, then for the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.; next, in New York, as stenographer for James Oppenheim, and then with the New York Telephone Business Directory.

Then I gave up and went into teaching, taking a position to teach commercial branches as a substitute in the University of Vermont. Since then I have been floating around teaching that line of subjects in high schools. I am not naturally fitted for teaching under the conditions of present-day school methods, was not specially prepared for the line I taught, or any line, and I have not done better than to just about "get by," — scarcely that. Commercial teaching has been a hard line to get out of, but last summer I managed to pass examinations in New Hampshire that gave me a superintendent's certificate, good for that state. I believe I can do better if I become a superintendent.

While I was looking for a position for this year, I came across the position I now hold — clerk of the Commission on the Investigation of Agricultural Education.

I value most of what I got from Harvard the straightening out on religious questions that came to me as the result of taking Semitic 12, Dr. D. G. Lyons' course on the History of the Hebrew People. My father was a Methodist minister. I joined the church when I was ten years old. But when I was twelve I went to purgatory and stayed there until I was twenty-seven, when I took Semitic 12. The trouble was I couldn't "get saved." At the end of the course, I didn't know what Dr. Lyons' views were on important religious matters, but I had been straightened out to my entire satisfaction — I had concluded that I didn't need to "get saved."

Talking very seriously, if my life were to end now, I would rather never have lived; it has been a case of plowing and harrowing on the side of a hill in land full of stones and stumps, with no harvest as yet. If my parents had helped me to get ready for some kind of agricultural work, instead of having opposed me, I might have had a good time living, for I do enjoy life in the country — it is not all plowing and harrowing on a stony side hill.

ON leaving College I worked for three months in the Citizens' Union of New York City, as Secretary of the College Campaign Committee. Then, for nine months, I was with the firm of Spencer Trask and Company. From 1904 to 1907 I studied at the Episcopal Theological School at Cambridge, Mass. From 1907 to 1909 I was curate at St. George's Church, New York City. For the next two years I was a teacher at the Groton School, Groton, Mass. From 1911 until 1913 I was rector of St. Mary's Church, Tuxedo, N. Y. In 1913 I became rector of St. Mark's Church, Mesa, Ariz. The next year I was assistant at the Protestant Cathedral at South Bethlehem, Pa., and chaplain of Lehigh University. In 1915 I was warden at Leonard Hall, South Bethlehem, Pa. In 1915-16 I was assistant at Grace Church, New York City, and from April to November, 1916, I was with the American Ambulance Field Service in France. In January, 1917, I became assistant at St. Paul's Cathedral, Boston, Mass.

 Child Francis Stanton, 2d, May 11, 1912.
 Occupation Banker and broker.
 Address (home) 37 Beacon St., Boston, Mass.; (business) 111 Devonshire St., Boston, Mass.

ON leaving college I travelled in Europe for three months, and then coming home entered the Harvard Medical School. There I only remained a short time, for I met with an accident that destroyed most of the sight of one eye, and my oculist told me that I could not study as much as the medical profession requires.

I therefore gave up medicine and went to work in the Boston office of Blake Brothers & Co., and there I still am. For about a year and a half, beginning February, 1910, I spent most of my time serving Harvard University, where I was Secretary to the President and Comptroller. Since August, 1911, I have been regularly with Blake Brothers & Co., where I am now a partner and in the commercial paper department. I worked pretty hard for over thirteen years in the Militia, and I have done some work in the Associated Charities and for the Children's Hospital, and that is about all.

I am growing fat and my hair is very thin, and I enjoy life a lot more than I used to know how to. All of the above is of interest to me, but I can't imagine it will amuse you. However, I am afraid of our secretary and he insists that I write it.

PUBLICATIONS: None except one article in the Graduates Magazine on Military Training.

MEMBER: Knickerbocker and Racquet and Tennis Clubs, New York City; Somersset and Tennis and Racquet Clubs, and Boston Athletic Association, Boston; Myopia Hunt Club, Hamilton, Mass; Longwood Cricket Club, Longwood, Mass.

PHILIP WARREN BLAKE

Born Taunton, Mass., May 29, 1877.
Parents Percy M., Phoebe Eliza Blake.
School High School, Taunton, Mass.
Degree (s. 1898-1899.)
Married Loretta Ludwig, Providence, R. I., Dec. 26, 1905.
Child Phillis, Oct., 26, 1913.
Occupation General Manager, Secretary and Treasurer Van Gleeckland Co.
Address (home) East Orange, N. J.; (business) 121 Lafayette St., Newark, N. J.

MY work up to a year ago was business re-organization, financing, and municipal developing work. The year 1915 found me in Cumberland, Md., in municipal developing work, where I was successful in negotiating with the Kelly Springfield Tire & Rubber Company of Akron, O., the moving of their entire plant to Cumberland, with an investment of $4,000,000, including new plant, railroad rebuilding, and municipal construction.

From there I took up the re-organization of the Van Gleeckland Company, of Newark, N. J. After spending a year and successfully accomplishing results desired, I was made general manager, secretary and treasurer of the company, which is my present position.

EDWARD BRADFORD BLAKELY

Born New York, N. Y., Feb. 9, 1878.
Parents Thomas Edward, Jennie (Briggs) Blakely.
School Berkeley School, New York, N. Y.
Degree (c. 1898-1900.)
Married Amandila Dolores Rivera, St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 4, 1902.
Child Rosita, Nov. 6, 1912.
Occupation Mechanical engineer.
Address (home) 3844 West Congress St., Chicago, Ill.; (business) Care of Sears, Roebuck & Co., Chicago, Ill.; (permanent) South Gasco, Me.

IN 1901 I entered the employ of the Woods Motor Vehicle Company of New York, where I was placed in the storage battery department. In 1902 I opened in New York a garage of my own with a branch at Newport, R. I., a business which I lost in 1903 through a dishonest partner. I then spent a year as chauffeur for E. E. Smathers, touring abroad and in this country. On my return I opened a garage at Beverly, Mass., giving this up to become a designer of automobiles for the Haynes Automobile Company, at Kokomo, Ind. In 1907 I became superintendent of the Ardsley Motor Car Company, Yonkers, N. Y., and in 1908, superintendent of the testing departments of the Daimler Manufacturing Company, Steinway, L. I. I also designed and drove a racing car for them at Ormond Beach, Fla., where I won six cups and a speed medal. During 1909 I was inspecting engineer at the Electric Vehicle Company, Hartford, Conn. I next taught physical training for a year at the DeWitt Clinton High School, New York, and gave an evening course in gas engine practice at the Y. M. C. A. In 1911 I was field expert and foreman of the repair department for the International Harvester Company of Milwaukee. In January, 1912, I resigned my position with the International Harvester Company and became consulting engineer of the gasoline engine department of Sears, Roebuck and Company, Chicago, Ill. I was later made chief engineer of their gas engine factory at Sparta, Mich., and still later became superintendent of this plant. When this plant was moved from Sparta, Mich., to Evansville, Ind., in 1914, I resigned, and went into business for myself at Muskegon, Mich., manufacturing a row-boat motor which I invented and patented. This venture was not a success financially as I had not sufficient capital behind me to operate on a scale large enough to make it worth while, so I sold my patents and returned to the employ of Sears, Roebuck and Company, Chicago, Ill., where I am now advisory engineer of the gasoline engine department, and am at present working on the development of a new type of oil engine, which seems to promise entirely to revolutionize certain branches, at least, of the internal combustion engine business.

MEMBER: Society of Automobile Engineers, Lovell Moore Lodge A. F. & A. M., and Sparta Chapter, R. A. M.

Occupation Lawyer.
Address (home) 14 Hilliard St., Cambridge, Mass.; (business) 60 State St., Boston, Mass.

AFTER graduation I taught school at Betts Academy, Stamford, Conn., until June, 1905. In the following September I entered the Harvard Law School, from which I was graduated in 1908. After a summer in the woods of Northern Ontario I took up the practice of law in Boston, entering the office of Loring, Coolidge & Noble. In January, 1913, I was admitted to the firm. During my earlier years I did the usual travelling that falls to the lot of the youngest lawyer in a large office. In 1912 I took a very interesting trip to Panama. Since then I have spent my vacations on riding trips in the mountains of North Carolina. As a natural result I was married in April, 1915, to Miss Sarah Lyles, of Columbia, S. C., the sister of Joe Lyles with whom I roomed while at the Law School. Since then I have lived in Cambridge, not the least of the advantages of which is having the Stadium within a few minutes' walk. If the college would only put up sign boards on every corner with arrows pointing the way to the glass flowers and the Widener Library it would add a lot more to the joy of living there. Up to the present time I have been satisfied with my profession, but if Tommy Lamont succeeds in raising his $10,000,000 I think I will apply for a job as water boy to the Faculty, so that I may

Occupation Lawyer.
Address (home) Hillman St. and Midlothian Blvd., Youngstown, O. (business) 115 West Federal St., Youngstown, O.

I WAS admitted to the bar of the state of Ohio in December, 1905, and was married the following April. I practised law alone until November, 1909, when I was elected Judge of the Criminal Court of the City of Youngstown on the Democratic ticket. In November, 1913, I was elected Judge of the Municipal Court of Youngstown on the non-partisan ticket. I am now serving the final year of the term and expect to be a candidate for re-election in November, 1917.

Since the last report we have two more children. Looking after the little ones and our suburban home with its flower and vegetable gardens and poultry have kept me so busy that I have given no time to clubs and societies. And strange to say I have not suffered from a political standpoint by not belonging to them.

We are on the best automobile road between Cleveland and Pittsburgh and shall be exceedingly pleased to have members of the Class with their friends stop. We shall treat them right.

Occupation Minister.
Address (home) Roslyn, N. Y.; (permanent) Fitzwilliam, N. H.

AS a sort of academic free lance I studied what I thought I needed most, so that after graduation in 1902 I found myself with enough extra unified courses for my Master of Arts degree, which was granted in 1903. After further studies in the Harvard Theological School and in Berlin, Germany, I was graduated in Divinity from the Episcopal Theological School in Cambridge in 1904. On June 7, 1904, I began my ministry as curate in St. John's Church, Providence, R. I. On January 15, 1906, I became associate Rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Brooklyn. On June 6 I assumed the rectorship of Trinity Church, Roslyn, Long Island, N. Y., where I now am.

My ministry is a continuous honor and position of trust. It never ceases to be hard, but it is always interesting. I studiously avoid so-called "honors," preferring to go on in patient service in the Church and among my people. I travel when I can plan the time and do some literary work here and there. I was one of the first to use an automobile for my parish work, and I believe firmly in all kinds of efficiency methods. For the past year I have used the dictaphone to great advantage. I did not dictate this because the penning of this record will illustrate the fact that my handwriting is still bad.

LAWRENCE GRAHAM BROOKS

Born Roxbury, Mass., Feb. 21, 1881.
Parents John Graham, Helen (Lawrence) Brooks.
School Browne and Nichols School, Cambridge, Mass.
Degrees A.B. 1902; A.M. 1903; LL.B. 1905.
Married Susan Morris Hallowell, Medford, Mass., Oct. 12, 1912.

Children John Graham, 2d, Oct. 8, 1913; Helen Lawrence, April 19, 1916 (died May 21, 1915).
Occupation Lawyer.
Address (home) 36 Mystic St., West Medford, Mass.; (business) 53 State St., Boston, Mass.

I MISSED with much regret the decennial celebration, owing to its conflict with the Republican National Convention at Chicago. In June, 1916, I went again to Chicago, this time as a delegate to the Progressive National Convention and favoring Roosevelt.

The intervening period has been taken up with law practice, with work on behalf of the State and National Progressive Parties, with efforts to secure safer conditions as regards street traffic in Massachusetts, as well as with domestic, social, and other duties. At the present time I am interested particularly in a movement to revise and modernize our state constitution.

I have been or am officially connected with the following organizations and institutions: Massachusetts Civic League, Treasurer, 1911-16; Massachusetts Progressive State Committee, Treasurer, 1911-16; Union for a Progressive Constitution, Treasurer, 1916; Highway Safety League, Secretary and Treasurer, 1911-16; Safety First Federation of America, Member of Executive Committee, 1911-16; Board of Water Commissioners of Medford, Member, 1914-16; Cambridge Economic Club, President, 1915-16; West Medford Tennis Club, Treasurer, 1916.

MEMBER: Union Boat and Boston City Clubs, and Harvard Musical Association, Boston.

WALTER DENISON BROOKS

Born Milton, Mass., Nov. 4, 1877.
Parents Walter Denison, Florence Evelyn (Rickelson) Brooks.
Schools Milton Academy, Milton, Mass.; Hopkinson's School, Boston, Mass.
Degree A.B. 1902 (1903).
Married Florence Smith Cobb, Milton, Mass., June 3, 1911.
Child Florence Cobb, March 2, 1912.
Occupation Trustee.
Address (home) Canton Ave., Readville, Mass.; (business) 60 State St., Boston, Mass.

SHORTLY after I left College I went into the Old Colony Trust Company and did office boy work for a year. From there I went into Henry D. Bennet's office, where I learned a little about real estate. In 1907 Richardson & Burrage, Real Estate, asked me to join them and for five years I was actively associated with them. In 1912 I gave up real estate and moved to 60 State Street, the office of J. C. Cobb, and have continued there up to the present time. Shortly after moving to 60 State St., I became interested in social service work of various kinds that have resulted in my being a director in the Elizabeth Peabody House, a director of the National Association of the George Jr. Republic, Secretary of the Overseers of the Poor of the Town of Milton, Chairman of the Boy Scout Committee of the Boston Chamber of Commerce, Commissioner of the Ninth District of the Boy Scouts of Greater Boston, and Treasurer of the Greater Boston Council of the Boy Scouts of America. I find that a large part of my time is being devoted to the above activities, especially the Boy Scouts. Incidentally I've just built a house on Canton Ave., Milton, and moved in in October, 1916.

Married	Marian Russell Prescott, Swampscott, Mass., June 14, 1905.
Children	Marie, Aug. 11, 1906 (died Aug. 21, 1906); Prescott Holcombe, April 4, 1913.
Occupation	Gypsum manufacturer.
Address	(home) Ridley Park, Pa.; (business) Chester, Pa.

IN 1902 I entered the employ of the United States Gypsum Company as a clerk in the operating department. In 1904 I was transferred to the purchasing department. A year later I became superintendent of the company's Grandville, Mich., plant. In 1906 I had charge of the Gypsum, O., plant, and from 1907 to 1909 of the Oakfield, N. Y., plant. In 1910 I returned to the Chicago office as assistant manager of the operating department. In the fall I again went to Oakfield, this time to construct a new mill and take charge of properties. In February, 1912, I resigned from the United States Gypsum Company to assume the management of the Crown Gypsum Company, Limited. I am now manufacturing gypsum at Chester, Pa.

PAUL MARCH BROWN

Born	South Boston, Mass., March 1, 1880.
Parents	Henry Mirick, Sophia Ann (Whilbread) Brown.

School High School, Natick, Mass.
Degree A.B. 1902.
Married Fraunce May Bloomer Dutton, Natick, Mass., March 22, 1910.
Occupation Musician, teacher, trustee.
Address (home) Hotel Victoria, Boston, Mass.; (business), Park Theatre and 218 Tremont St., Boston, Mass.

THE failure of the Boston Opera Company and the consequent disbandment of the orchestra, disastrous and discouraging as it proved to be for many of the men, was a blessing to me. Appointed trustee for both my father's and my mother's respective estates I needed more spare time than the Opera work would have allowed me. I had the good fortune also to step into a vacancy in the Hollis Street Theatre Orchestra, where I stayed two years. This year I accepted better prospects as one of the Krauth Symphony players at the Park Theatre.

On Sunday May 9, 1915, my wife and I were baptized, and joined the Union Congregational Church on confession of faith. We have become more and more earnest and occupied in the many various possible activities of the church life, and daily find great happiness in real service.

38 CLASS OF 1902 — REPORT V

Degrees A.B. 1902; M.D. 1906.
Married Elizabeth St. John Taylor, Chestnut Hill, Mass., Aug. 22, 1905.
Child Malcolm, Sept. 4, 1906.
Occupation Physician.
Address 429 Court St., North Plymouth, Mass.

AFTER graduating from the Medical School I started practice in Brookline, Mass. In 1910 I moved to Plymouth, Mass., where I have been continuously in the practice of medicine. I find I am busier and more tied down to my practice every year. I am surgeon to the Puritan Mills in Plymouth and do considerable insurance work. I am also lecturer in pathology in the Nurses Training School of the Jordan Hospital, Plymouth. I have also made a special study of the "Workman's Compensation Act" and find industrial surgery most interesting and profitable. Whenever I can leave my work I go into Boston to hear the Boston Symphony Orchestra, which has been for over twenty years a continual inspiration and a source of never-ending pleasure in my life.

THOMAS STACEY BUBIER

Born Lynn, Mass., Jan. 15, 1881.
Parents Frederick Louis, Mary Ella (Stacey) Bubier.
School Classical High School, Lynn, Mass.
Degrees A.B. 1902; LL.B. 1904.
Married Alice Frances Haskell, Lynn, Mass., Oct. 19, 1911.
Child Janet, Aug. 6, 1912.
Occupation Lawyer.
Address (home) 7 Phillips Ave., Lynn, Mass.; (business) 14 Central Ave., Lynn, Mass.

SINCE my graduation from the Law School, I have followed my profession in Lynn, Mass. During the first few years I pieced out the slender income of a young attorney by teaching in the evening schools, but, as the light began to break through the clouds, I gave it up.

Socially my activities have been mostly confined to the Masonic lodges.

After finishing four years service in the militia in 1911, I took up the military game again this summer by going to the July camp at Plattsburg. Although multitudes of Harvard men were there, I found none from 1902. I am now seeking a commission in the officers reserve corps.

MEMBER: Masons, Odd Fellows, Harvard Club, Lynn, Mass.

Child Irma Jones, Sept. 19, 1912.
Occupation Sporting goods dealer.
Address (home) 1199 Vance Ave., Memphis, Tenn.; (business) 144 South Main St., Memphis, Tenn.

I BELIEVE that the last message I prepared, or compiled, left me engaged in the insurance business. Since then I have engaged in a little bit of everything. I have been a cow-puncher out West, run a tourist joint, hunted and fished pretty much everywhere, shot clay pigeons for emolument, and all that sort of thing. As a matter of record, I attended to pretty much every kind of business except the one I was supposed to be in. I have been a weight lifter under the calcium, and for several seasons I operated as a heavyweight prize ring artist — out West — you wouldn't remember the name if you saw it. Finally I turned amateur and won a championship. Right after that I got married and decided that as long as the full dinner pail was to be the paramount issue of the campaign I had best cut out the rough stuff. So I have become the leading hustler among others of like ilk who hustle around a sporting goods concern which I operate. I still hunt and fish a great deal, having discovered some years ago that by taking pictures afield and later writing accounts of my doings out of doors that occasionally an editor of some sporting magazine would slip me money therefor. In this pursuit of happiness I am ably assisted by my wife. I have accumulated no great amount of this world's goods, but I have neither waist line, surplus front, a bald spot nor indigestion. We have a four-year-old daughter who is absolutely the most beautiful and wonderful child on earth — bar none. I now consider golf the best game afloat — my handicap is 6 when bragging truthfully, 14 when engaged in negotiating a gambling proposition on the first tee. I have, I am glad to say, found the even tenor of my way in life, and thanks thereto and a benevolent Providence I am able to keep pretty well paid up on the life insurance and eat three perfectly square meals every day of the world. I found a card on my desk the other day from Glasgow, '03, St. Louis. He is with the Federal Reserve Bank. The last time I saw that lad he was trying to make the property keeper of the old Boston Opera House give him back his citizen's clothes for a suit of tights and a bum spear he had been toting as a grand opera retainer for the House of Capulet, with Melba, Fritz-Scheff and the DeReszkes doing the warbling. Speaking of spear-toting and war reminds me that I forgot to mention in passing that I am now the holder of an honorable discharge from the United States Army as a result of having gone to war with Mexico as a member — sergeant of the First Class, etc., etc., — Co. I., 1st. Tennessee Infantry. I served three months in mobilization camp at Nashville, Tenn., and when I say "served in Nashville" I mean what I say. I'd like very much indeed to come back to old Cambridge and see the old haunts and the still young gang — maybe I shall — Quien sabe? Well, here's looking at you!

Address (home) 2926 Euclid Ave., Cleveland, O.; (business) 703 Cuyahoga Building, Cleveland, O.

IMEDIATELY after graduation I spent a year travelling around the world with Harry M. Ayres, '02, visiting the Hawaiian Islands, Japan, China, the Philippines, Burma, India, Ceylon, Egypt, Palestine, Greece, Russia, Rumania, Servia, Austria-Hungary, Germany, France, and England. Returning in the autumn of 1903, I attended Harvard Law School for two years. In the summer of 1905, I entered the law office of Henderson, Quail & Siddall, Cleveland, and was admitted to the bar of Ohio in June, 1906. In 1907 I had a business trip to England, France, Germany and Belgium, looking after patent matters for the American Multigraph Company; and in 1909 I went to Japan and the Philippines on my wedding trip. On September 1, 1909, I formed a law partnership with Richard Inglis, '03, and on

46 CLASS OF 1902—REPORT V

I HAVE been practising medicine in Boston since 1903, the past six years as a Roentgenologist. I am assistant physician to the X-ray department at the Boston City Hospital and Chief of the X-Ray department at the St. Elizabeth's Hospital. I served ten years in the State Militia, retiring as Major of the Medical Corps in 1914; signed again in June, 1916, at the time of the Mexican crisis, as First Lieutenant and served four months on the border.

Occupation	Lawyer.
Address	(home) 4828 Kenmore Ave., Chicago, Ill.; (business) Criminal Court Building and County Building, Chicago, Ill.

THE following is substantially quoted from an article appearing in one of the local papers recently:

"Charles Center Case, Jr., 'County Attorney,' i.e., Assistant State's Attorney in charge of the (Cook) County Law Department, is a native Illinoisan. He was born on an Illinois farm, on which he spent the first twenty-two of his thirty-eight years, — except when away at school. He was educated in the country schools of Boone County, Rockford High School, Northwestern University, Harvard University, and Chicago-Kent and Northwestern Law Schools.

"Following the startling exposures of peculations in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, in 1906, Mr. Case was appointed Chief Clerk.

"Except for one year, or a little less, devoted to the reorganization of the Circuit Clerk's Office, Mr. Case has practised law in Chicago since his admission to the bar in 1903.

"He has been an Assistant to State's Attorney Maclay Hoyne the last four years, during which time he has been in charge of most of the departments of that office. While in charge of Grand Jury matters he handled many important prosecutions, including the 'Lorimer-Munday-LaSalle Street Trust and Savings Bank' cases, the 'Captain Storen-Sergeant Weissbaum' police cases, and the labor 'extortion' cases.

"Mr. Case is a member of the American Bar Association, the Illinois State Bar Association, the Chicago Bar Association, the Harvard Club of Chicago, Phi Delta Theta and Phi Delta Phi fraternities, Lincoln Park Lodge, No. 611, A. F. & A. M.; Oriental Consistory, S. P. R. S., thirty-second degree; Medinah Temple, A. A. O. N. M. S.; and Lakeside Chapter, O. E. S."

MERRILL EDWIN CHAMPION

Born Prince Edward Island, Canada, May 20, 1880.
 Parents Solomon, Elizabeth (Matthews) Champion.
 School High School, Wakefield, Mass.
 Degrees A.B. 1902; M.D. 1906; C.P.H. 1914; C.P.H. (Mass. Inst. Tech.) 1914.
 Married Florence S. Chase, Boston, Mass., Nov. 30, 1911.
 Occupation Physician (Health Officer).
 Address 50 Phillips St., Wollaston (Quincy), Mass.

AFTER graduating from the College I entered the Harvard Medical School, getting the degree of M.D. in 1906. Settling in Arlington, Mass., I practised general medicine until 1913. During this time I became more and more interested in the public health aspect of my profession: I served as bacteriologist to the town and as physician to the Board of Health. Finally, in 1913, I definitely decided to relinquish general practice and to specialize in public health work. The School for Health Officers, conducted by the Harvard Medical School and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, opened this year; I enrolled in the first class and got the certificate in Public Health in June, 1914.

The remainder of the year 1914 and part of 1915 I spent in North Carolina with the Rockefeller Sanitary Commission and the North Carolina State Board of Health as field director in the hookworm eradication work. In the spring of 1915 I came North to take the competitive examination for the position of state district health officer with the newly organized State Department of Health of Massachusetts. Being fortunate enough to make one of these eight positions, I returned to Massachusetts in March, 1915, and settled in Fitchburg, the headquarters of The Wachusett Health District. After I had been there a month, however, a vacancy occurred in the Eastern Health District, to which I was transferred in May.

Since May, 1915, I have been in charge of The Eastern Health District, with headquarters in Quincy. My district includes forty-six cities and towns, one of which is Boston. The duties of the position are as varied as anyone could ask for and embrace the whole field of the public health — medical, legal, sociological, and educational.

✠ ANDRÉ CHÉRONNET-CHAMPOLLION

Born	Paris, France, Sept. 20, 1880.
Parents	René, Mary (Corbin) Chéronnet-Champollion.
School	St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H.
Degree	A.B. 1902 (1903).
Married	Adelaide Strong Knox, Seabright, N. J., Sept. 5, 1908.
Child	Rene, Sept. 21, 1909.
Died	Bois-le-Prêtre, France, March 23, 1915.

ANDRÉ CHÉRONNET-CHAMPOLLION was born in Paris on September 20, 1880, the son of René and Mary (Corbin) Chéronnet-Champollion. On the death of his mother, who survived his father by several years, he came to America at the age of twelve and was brought up by his American grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Corbin. He was educated at St. Paul's School and Harvard and attended the Art Students' League in New York for four years.

After graduating from Harvard, Champollion made a trip around the world, during which he became greatly interested in Indian scenes. The Russo-Japanese war broke out while he was travelling in the East, and on hearing of the tragic death of Xerestchagin he expressed the desire to become a painter of the same type, one who should depict the horrors of warfare with intense realism, in the desire to further the cause of peace. Champollion made two later trips to India painting native types, and architectural and street scenes.

At the time Champollion was called for military service the law allowed a Frenchman possessing a French university degree a shorter service. In view of the fact that Champollion held a Harvard degree he felt he was entitled to the same privilege. This was not conceded, and in 1904 he became an American citizen. Early in 1914 President Poincaré granted a military amnesty. Among other clauses of the amnesty was one whereby Champollion, because he left France for America before he was fifteen and was over thirty at the time the amnesty was granted, could be held only for six weeks' service. On presenting himself at the military bureau of the precinct in which he was born in Paris, he was laughingly told that they could not make a soldier in six weeks and was handed his livret militaire. It seemed an easy adjustment of his difficulties with France, though Champollion appreciated that as an American his return to France, even then, was inconsistent. France does not recognize foreign naturalization unless the Frenchman born fulfils all his military obligations.

When the Great War broke out Champollion was in America. Early in August he sailed for France. Accustomed to camp life through many hunting trips, Champollion had no fear of physical hardships or dangers, but the military routine, the drudgery, and the association, mostly with men from the peasant classes, was trying. The greatest trial was caused by the question ever uppermost in his mind as to whether he had been fair to his wife and son in returning to France. The intensity of the struggle which he went through in this respect, particularly during the days of monotony in the military depot at Sens, is well shown in the following passage from a letter to his wife:

SENS, YONNE, NOV. 1914.

"My life here has lost the novelty which at first made it interesting in spite of the hardships, and has become an existence of dull routine and deadly comfortless monotony. The platoon composing the candidates for promotion is lodged in a brush factory. We sleep on straw, eat soldier-fashion out of tin pails, and wash as best we can in the courtyard, where a couple of cold water faucets supply our wants in this respect. We have as our immediate commander a sergeant who is an ex-postman, a barking, surly, yapping little brute who makes us toe the mark all day and treats us like a lot of cattle. He is not altogether bad, however, and when approached the right way can be made to listen to reasonable requests. Opposite the factory there is a small dealer in "assorted foodstuffs." We occasionally run across the street and buy food there to vary the deadly fare of the barrack room. Straw is not an ideal bed to sleep on, and we practically live in filth and squalor.

Sometimes I have some dreadful moments of repentance that I did not hold on to my patriotic enthusiasm and weigh more carefully the consequences of coming here. I see our beautiful home in New Hampshire, you above all and René, the loveliness of the Park and the splendid times I have had there, my studio and the attractive profession I have left, my library with the books I loved to read, my friends, my relatives in America, Harvard and all that that name implies, in fact the entire splendor and happiness of my past life rises before me, and when I look about me in my present surroundings with the future menacing and dreary, I am overpowered by the magnitude of the sacrifice I have made. Yet I realize that had I remained in America I should not have been satisfied and would always have been burdened with a feeling that I had failed in a supreme test. I should have lost faith in myself to rise to a great emergency when it presented itself. I am leading a dreadfully sad existence, there is no use denying the fact, but thousands — millions of others over here are as unhappy. I am doing what I considered my duty and that is a consolation. Not one Frenchman in ten to whom I tell my story really thinks it was my duty to come. They all admire what I have done, but say that in my place they would have remained at home — but this I am willing to doubt."

Champollion fell at Bois-le-Prêtre in French Lorraine on March 23, 1915, shot through the head. The following letter, written by his lieutenant who knew him only twenty-six days, expresses a well-merited appreciation of the action of a man who has given the ultimate proof of devotion to conviction.

(TRANSLATION)

MADAM

20th OF APRIL, 1915.

I have not been able to answer before this your letter of the 13th of April, because I was forced to undergo a minor operation at the Hospital at Toul, after which I was removed to Vichy.

I had requested my uncle to notify you with the utmost possible care of the glorious death of André Chéronnet-Champollion, for I knew that his wife intended to return to France this month, and I wanted to give you the opportunity of preventing her.

My attention was particularly drawn to your nephew because he had lived in the United States, where I myself have interests and friends;—in fact, I was in New York when the war broke out.

I quickly learned to sympathize with him, because I saw him to be rather strange in surroundings altogether new to him, and because I admired deeply the beauty of his action, which had made him forget his interests and affections, to come, spontaneously, to France in danger. We often talked together. I saw him accomplish his daily duties as a soldier in the trenches with constant modesty, good humour, sang-froid, and a great indifference to danger, and this sympathy changed soon to profound friendship.

He was struck by a bullet in the forehead on the 23d of March, when the Germans, having unexpectedly exploded a mine in one of our trenches, attempted to invade our lines. To check them as quickly as possible, our company was making a barricade of sacks of earth to fill the breach. It was when coöperating in this work, with his habitual courage, that he was struck.

I was not at the time beside him, but I learned from one of his comrades, who carried his body to the rear, that death had been instantaneous, and that he had not spoken a word. The days which followed were very "hot." It was not until the 28th of March, when I myself was wounded, that I was able, from the ambulance, to have pointed out to me the place where he had been buried in the cemetery of Petan, near the village of Montanville, at the very entrance of the Bois-le-Prêtre, where we had been fighting all winter.

I knew that a little package, containing personal objects, found on him by his comrades, had been given to the captain of our company (killed the day I was wounded). I have written to have them search for the package and send it to me, when I will advise you of its receipt.

I expect to obtain permission to go to Paris when I am able, probably toward the middle of next month. I shall then make it my duty to come and visit you and evoke with you memories of our dear one.

In the name of my poor captain, to whom I had often talked about your nephew in glowing terms, and in my name, permit me to salute, very respectfully, the body of my friend, the soldier, André Chéronnet-Champollion, of the 4th Company of the 168th, killed gloriously for France, the 23d of March, 1915, in Bois-le-Prêtre.

LUCIEN COURTOIS.

MIAL VERROCCHIO CLARK

Born Blissfield, Mich., Aug. 30, 1872.
Parents Nathan Norton, Carrie Mary (Baker) Clark.
School High School, Plymouth, Mich.
Degree Litt.B. (Albion, Mich.) 1900.
Unmarried
Occupation Real estate broker.
Address 702 Third Ave., Detroit, Mich.

I WAS a student in the Lawrence Scientific School in 1896-97 and in Harvard College in 1898-99. After leaving I went to Europe for a tour through England, France, Switzerland, Italy, Austria, Germany, and Holland. On returning, I again started my "Harvard Laundry" among the students; the profits were nearly $50 per week. At Christmas I sold out to enter the senior class at Albion, Mich., where I was graduated in the spring of 1900. The winter of 1901-02 was spent in the Smoky Mountains of North Carolina in order to regain my health, which had been broken apparently by overwork while in the east. Ultimately I came to Detroit, Mich., where I entered the real estate business, in which I am still engaged.

64 CLASS OF 1902—REPORT V

Perhaps some of my friends will be interested to know that my health is very good now and that I am still a bachelor. Should I "fall in love" I suppose I would aspire to the presidency or something equally foolish, and end with the ordinary humdrum of married life, but as it is I just jog along, having a good time on a fair income. My friends and books, my rod and gun, my real estate and mechanical interests, all help to make life worth living.

Occupation	Telephone manager.
Address	(home) 647 Ontario St., Oak Park, Ill.; (business) 212 West Washington St., Chicago, Ill.

FROM the time of my marriage in 1905 up to 1912, I lived in Evanston. I was Manager for the Chicago Telephone Company and then was made District Manager for the Company. In 1912 I was transferred to the general offices of the Company in Chicago, and made Pay Station Agent with supervision over the Chicago territory of all public pay stations. At the time of writing I still hold this position.

I joined the Oak Park Country Club (Golf, etc.). Had some little luck in 1916 tournaments. "Nothing of excitement or interest" in the way of public offices.

MEMBER: Harvard Club of Chicago, Evanston Country Club, Glenview Golf Club, Oak Park Country Club, Neighborhood Club of River Forest.

Occupation	Minister.
Address	Morning Face, Richmond, Mass.

MY first five years after college were spent in graduate study and travel. The other ten have been in a country parish, just where New York and New England meet, a place combining the best traditions of the past with the best activities of the present. The single church, with its hundred and fifty years of history, gives a natural center for the civic, social, recreational and inspirational life of the community. Let me invite any who look upon the function of the rural pastor as chiefly bucolic to spend a little time with him in his "field," when automobile, telephone, and wireless are in full swing, and inquire into the responsibilities, rewards, and recreations of a country parson.

Unmarried
Occupation Teacher.
Address Faculty Club, Williamstown, Mass.

SINCE the Decennial report, the Berkshire Hills have continued to be the scene of my labors as a member of the Williams College Faculty. I find myself here in a community in which Harvard is well represented, for it is worthy of note that fully one quarter of our Faculty have received a part or the whole of their training at Harvard. This, in view of the fact that three quarters of our students come from outside of New England, is one of the numerous ways in which Harvard is extending her influence beyond New England.

Academic life is one of comparative calm, and, in spite of having been caught in Austria at the outbreak of the war, I have no thrilling tales of warfare to add to my annals. I therefore yield the space to others whose experiences will make more entertaining reading.

 Married July, 1902; divorced June, 1908.
 Occupation Music teacher.
 Address (home) "Twin Oaks," Holderness, N. H.; (business) 218 Tremont St., Boston, Mass.

SINCE writing the short outline for the 1912 report, consistent progress has been made in my profession as music teacher, and the work of the winter is supplanted at my summer home on Asquam Lake, Holderness, N. H., which has been transformed into "The Holderness Summer School of Music for Girls" of which I am the principal.

I find the work a pleasure on account of the greater benefit my past training in life and at Harvard has for a greater number of students than is possible in private teaching. The fruit orchard I reported as having planted on this estate has prospered and come into bearing, and is a great source of our food supply.

SINCE graduation I have led a very interesting and happy existence, experiencing at different times those ups and downs which I suppose most men have to go through with. I have served on several committees in clubs and institutions, and also my class and enjoy it because I feel I am doing something. I am at present in the bond business with the banking house of E. H. Rollins & Sons.

MEMBER: Harvard and Somerset Clubs, Boston.

EDWIN PETER DEWES

Born Chicago, Ill., Sept. 2, 1879.
Parents Francis Joseph, Hedwig (Busch) Dewes.
School University School, Chicago, Ill.

Degree	A.B. 1902.
Married	Grace La Pierre Wooldridge, Baltimore, Md., April 6, 1910.
Children	Grace Hedwig, Jan. 30, 1911; Dorothy Wooldridge, Nov. 26, 1912; Elizabeth Goode, Oct. 7, 1916.
Occupation	Manufacturer.
Address	(home) 2314 Lincoln Park West, Chicago, Ill.; (business) 1225 South Campbell Ave., Chicago, Ill.; (permanent) 503 Wrightwood Ave., Chicago, Ill.

AFTER graduation from Harvard College I entered Northwestern Law School, Chicago. (Member Phi Delta Phi Fraternity — delegate to Convention of same, St. Louis, 1904.) I left Law School at the expiration of two years to go into business and have been at it trying to beat the well known high cost of living ever since.

My outside interests include Chicago Association of Commerce, where I have been active on several committees, acting as chairman of my own trade subdivision for several years; Harvard Club matters have always interested me particularly from the constructive standpoint; I believe I can say without fear of contradiction that our local organization is as enthusiastic and loyal as any Harvard Club in the country. My particular interest has centered in scholarship work, this being my sixth year on the scholarship committee. At the last meeting I was elected director of the Club.

I married a graduate of Bryn Mawr College in 1910. The contest has been an unequal one: score to date — Bryn Mawr 3, Harvard 0. I shall devote my days from now on to educating my three girls so as to fit them for the important sphere that woman will fill during years to come.

I have travelled quite a bit since leaving college, both here and abroad; when at home I play golf in summer and squash racquets in winter. I am pro-German, but not hyphenated, and want to see the power of England, especially as affecting this country, broken. Politics: Republican — have just cast vote for Hughes, the next President of the United States of America. For additional information apply to the writer.

MEMBER: Harvard Club of Chicago, University Club of Chicago, Exmoor Country Club, Art Institute.

ARTHUR STONE DEWING

Born	Boston, Mass., April 16, 1880.
Parents	Charles Hamlet, Eliza Williams Stone (Paine) Dewing.
School	Cambridge High School, Cambridge, Mass.
Degrees	A.B. 1902; A.M. 1903; Ph.D. 1905.
Married	Frances Hall Rousmaniere, Boston, Mass., June 3, 1910.

84 CLASS OF 1902—REPORT V

Children    Mary Stone, March 18, 1911; Abigail Starr, June 1, 1912; Ruth Rousmaniere, Aug. 31, 1915.

Occupation    Research.

Address    Pinehurst, Belmont, Mass.

AFTER graduation I studied philosophy at Harvard and in Germany. Subsequently I taught science in a private school and served as assistant in philosophical courses at Harvard. Later I became instructor in philosophy and psychology in Simmons College, Boston. About 1910 I turned my attention to economics, and became instructor at Harvard; and later assistant professor of political economy at Yale. I specialized in corporation finance. Last year (1916) I gave up teaching, and am now devoting all my time to research and writing in economics. At the present time am engaged on the preparation of Brief of the Facts for the United States Supreme Court in the Corn Products Refining case, a dissolution suit under the Sherman Act. I am director in several public service corporations. I am doing some lecturing on economic topics.

Life, on the whole, has been uneventful. It was saddened in 1911 by the death of my mother, whose self-sacrifice and devotion to me was the inspiration of all I tried to do.

WALTER FRANCIS DILLINGHAM

Born Honolulu, T. H., April 5, 1875.
Parents Benjamin Franklin, Emma Louise (Smith) Dillingham.
School High School, Newton, Mass.
Degree (c. 1898-1900.)
Married Louise Olga Gaylord, Florence, Italy, May 2, 1910.
Children Lowell, June 17, 1911; Benjamin Franklin, Oct. 14, 1916.
Occupation Financial.
Address (home) 1200 Punahon St., Honolulu, T. H.; (business) Strangenwald Building, Honolulu, T. H.

IT hardly seems possible that it is five years since I gave the history of my life for the Decennial Book, B. Wendell's urgent request notwithstanding.

While not responsible for the prominence which these Islands have attained on the "Great White Way," I have been devoting my efforts to the development of this Territory. I have spent a large portion of my time in connection with railroads and through the financial management of the Oahu Railway and Land Company have come into direct touch with the agricultural and commercial interests of the city of Honolulu and the Island of Oahu. These enterprises include sugar plantations, pineapple farms, cattle ranches, banks and trust companies.

Perhaps the work of most interest to the outside world was the opening of Pearl Harbor and the construction of the Pearl Harbor dry dock. These contracts with the U. S. Navy were taken by an engineering company organized by Robert Atkinson and myself shortly after our leaving College. The dredging contract embraced the cutting of a five-mile channel from deep sea to the dry dock site and was the Navy's largest dredging contract. This was completed on time in 1912 at a cost of over three million dollars. The dry dock contract was started in 1909. Many obstacles had to be overcome in carrying out this work, but the prospects are that this dry dock, which will be the largest in America, will be completed in 1918, at a cost of four and a half million dollars.

I think I hold the record as the best "joiner" in the Pacific. I may have missed a few clubs and charitable organizations, but think it extremely doubtful.

It is embarrassing not to be able to report a list of "offices of honor" which I now hold or have held, as, outside of trusteeships of eleemosynary institutions and a couple of colleges, a few local political jobs, and the usual list of club offices, I am unable to find my name in the hall of fame.

Polo has been my particular hobby and for the past fourteen years I have captained the Island club and the All-Hawaii team.

My time otherwise outside of business and family obligations is spent at tennis, and endeavoring to keep young. I am making an effort to develop a couple of Harvard athletes who will help to keep the family name and the prestige of Hawaiian athletes favorably before the Harvard alumni.

My latest inspiration has been to render service to the Nation. Finding that it was possible to join the Officers' Reserve without taking a mental examination, I am now anxiously awaiting a Major's commission in the Officers' Reserve Corps, United States Army.

JOHN ADAMS DIX

Born	New York, N. Y., Oct. 5, 1880.
Parents	Morgan, Emily Woolsey (Soutter) Dix.
School	Groton School, Groton, Mass.; Culler's School, New York, N. Y.
Degree	A.B. 1902.
Married	Sophie Witherspoon Townsend, New York, N. Y., Oct. 10, 1910.
Occupation	Banking and finance.
Address	(home) 119 East 79th St., New York, N. Y.; (business) 63 Wall St., New York, N. Y.

FROM October, 1902, to December, 1907, I was employed in various capacities by the following business houses: Messrs. J. P. Morgan & Co., A. Iselin & Co., Hartshorne Bogert &

Battelle. In December, 1907, I purchased a seat on the New York Stock Exchange, and have since that time been in business for myself, making my headquarters from early in 1908 until May, 1912, with Messrs. Blake Brothers & Co. May 1, 1912, I entered into partnership with Mr. H. McC. Bangs, a graduate of Columbia College, class of 1908, forming the stock exchange firm of Dix and Bangs, which was in existence until May 1, 1916, when it dissolved by mutual consent.

On May 1, 1916, I took up my present duties as vice president of the Transocean Finance & Commerce Corporation, with offices at 63 Wall Street, New York. This corporation was organized to take part in the building up of financial and commercial relations with countries overseas, more especially with the Latin American republics.

I was honored for six years by an appointment to the Admissions Committee of the Harvard Club of New York, 1903-04 to 1909-10. I served five years and two months (October, 1902, to December, 1907) as trooper in Troop 2, Squadron A, National Guard of the State of New York, and for more than one year, December, 1911, to March, 1913, as 2d lieutenant in the 8th Coast Artillery District of the National Guard of this State.

I hold the following positions of honor and trust: — member of the Board of Governors of the Union Club of New York since January, 1913; member of the Vestry of Trinity Church since April, 1909; Treasurer of the General Theological Seminary of the Protestant Episcopal Church since April, 1912; and Treasurer of the Leake and Watts Orphan House in the City of New York since March, 1914. I serve also on the boards of a considerable number of religious and charitable institutions.

MEMBER: Union, Knickerbocker, Harvard, and Stock Exchange Luncheon Clubs, New York City; New Hampshire Society of the Cincinnati; New York Chapter Sons of the Revolution; Society of the War of 1812 (New York); New York Historical Society; Cherry Valley Club, Garden City, Long Island; Bedford Golf and Tennis Club, Bedford, N. Y.

AFTER having served as draftsman, automobile repair shop superintendent, automobile salesman, contracting engineer, and perhaps a few more things, I have at last, in my old age, settled down to the one great task of endeavoring to amuse and entertain the public. It always takes a sober man to do it.

About five years ago the idea took root, and since then, nourished by the public's nickels and dimes and a few quarters now and then, has grown into a healthy chain of theatres and theatrical interests, known as R. W. Drown's Amusement Enterprises. Somewhat different from engineering, but then we can't all be engineers.

FROM 1905 to 1914 I was Vice President of the "Indian Refining Co." In June, 1914, I resigned that position to become President of the Prudential Oil Corporation, 17 Battery Place, New York City, which position I now fill.

HARRY CHITTENDEN DUDLEY

Born	Guilford, Conn., July 31, 1878.
Parents	James A., Emmeline (Griswold) Dudley.
School	Belmont School, Belmont, Cal.
Degree	S.B. 1902.
Unmarried
Occupation	Mining engineer.
Address	(home) Kitchi Gammi Club, Duluth, Minn.; (business) 807 Lonsdale Bldg., Duluth, Minn.

AFTER graduation I entered the employ of the Cleveland Cliffs Iron Company, Ishpeming, Mich., as a mining engineer and was at their mines on the Marquette and Gogebic Ranges from 1902 to 1905. In the summer of 1905 I left this Company for the Canisteo Mining District at Coleraine, Minn., on the West Mesaba Range, then being opened by the United States Steel Corporation, for whom I became Assistant Chief Engineer in that district, and in the following year Superintendent of the Canisteo and Walker Mines. In 1908 I went to Marble, Minn., as Superintendent for the same company, the Oliver Iron Mining Company, where I opened the Hill Mine. Early in 1911 I went to Brazil, representing a group which was contemplating the purchase of iron properties. I also spent some time in Argentina, returning in the summer of 1912.

Since then I have travelled much of the time in the United States, Canada, and Mexico in the examination of mining properties. I also represent the mining companies as consulting engineer and am President of the Goodyear Exploration Company.

Occupation Engineer and contractor.
Address (home) 129 East 82nd St., New York, N. Y.; (business) 120 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

FOR the first three years out of College I held various jobs along engineering lines, after which I decided that contracting was the most interesting, and am still following that line. My headquarters for the last ten years have been New York, but I've mostly lived somewhere else out on the job. I have spent four years in Cuba and one in South America. I found the business interesting all right, but no place for a married man, and now that I am back in New York again I intend to let "George" do the travelling in the future.

MEMBER: American Society of Civil Engineers, American Society of Mechanical Engineers; Harvard and Engineers Clubs, New York.

Occupation Mercantile business.

Address (home) 44 East 41st St., New York, N. Y.; (business) 222 Front St., New York, N. Y.

SHORTLY after graduation I was engaged by the Grasselli Chemical Co. as chemist in their New Jersey plant and remained there somewhat more than two years. Early in 1905, I went with the Milligan & Higgins Glue Co. as Chief Chemist. I originated methods of control, developed processes in the manufacture of gelatine, and progressed gradually into the mercantile end of the business. My principal work is exploiting new fields for the use of glues and gelatines and in selling goods.

Address 3231 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y.

AS soon as Commencement exercises were over in June, 1902, in company with K. B. Emerson, 1902, and B. E. Eames, 1901, I sailed for Liverpool and spent the summer travelling through England and several countries on the continent on bicycle. Upon my return to the United States in the fall, I went to Orono, Me., where I had been engaged to teach in the University of Maine.

In the fall of 1903 I returned to Cambridge to enter the Harvard Law School, and after completing my law course, my finances being exhausted, I looked about for something that would afford me an immediate income and hit upon a position as teacher in the high school at Asbury Park, N. J. This paid me a thousand dollars for the school year and the following year fourteen hundred dollars. At the end of the second year, having laid by a little money, I made for Kansas City, Mo., where I intended to enter the practice of my profession.

I arrived at Kansas City in August of 1908, but found there would be no bar examination until the following January, and being offered a position as teacher in Spaldings Commercial College, I again took up the work of teaching. The following January I went to Jefferson City to take the bar examination and shortly after was admitted to the Missouri bar. As I was under contract for the year, however, I continued with my teaching, but at the same time began to pick up a little law business and, in order to get some criminal practice, applied to Judge Latshaw, judge of the Criminal Court. The first thing I was rewarded with was a robbery case. This was the start of considerable criminal work and in December of that year I opened a law office for myself at 837 New York Life Building.

From the start I was quite busy with cases of one kind and another, but they were not cases that paid very much and I had to find some other source of income on which to support my wife and two children, my marriage having taken place in December, 1903, at Cambridge. I hit upon the idea of a correspondence course for teaching the cornet. Just then I was only averaging about thirty to fifty dollars a month from my law, but I took the risk and spent my whole capital of five hundred dollars in printing and putting upon the market my correspondence cornet course. This fortunately turned out far better than I had anticipated, and within a few months the income from the course exceeded the income from my law practice and within a year I was on a good footing. This business continued to grow month after month until I was compelled to get someone in to look after the cornet course for me. I remained in Kansas City practising law and supervising my cornet course until August of 1915, at which time, on account of the ill health of my wife, I moved to Buffalo, N. Y.

Since coming to Buffalo a year ago I have been busy in getting located, and although I have been admitted to the New York bar, have not yet had time to open an office in Buffalo, but expect to do so in the near future.

Child Richard Arthur, 2d, May 14, 1909.
Occupation Manufacturer.
Address (home) Peru, Ind.; (business) c/o Peru Chair Works, Peru, Ind.

I WAS engaged principally in the banking business with the First National Bank of Peru, Ind., from July, 1902, to February, 1904. Then I was with Wolverine Cedar & Lumber Company in the lumber manufacturing business from February, 1904, to February, 1914, operating mills in Wisconsin, Michigan and Ontario. With the cutting out of the last of the Company's timber holdings in 1913-1914, I returned to Peru, Ind., and spent about a year in closing up the lumber business and helping re-organize several smaller concerns which were controlled by the interests I am working with. Early in 1915 I took over the active management of the old Peru Chair Company, first as receiver of the old company and later as manager of the business re-organized as the Peru Chair Works, Manufacturers of Furniture. At present I am Vice President and General Manager of the Peru Chair Works, which is actively in business, hold the same offices in the Wolverine Cedar & Lumber Company, which is not in active business, but simply a holding company for some northern lands, and am Secretary-Treasurer of the Peru Heating Company, a small public utility. I am Treasurer of the Peru Manufacturers Association and Chairman of one of the committees of the National Association of Chair Manufacturers.

Occupation Surgeon.
Address 362 Commonwealth Ave., Boston, Mass.

SINCE graduation from the Medical School I have passed through the various phases ordinary to the development of a specialist in surgery. I graduated from the Boston City Hospital in 1907, was appointed to the visiting staff, and have advanced to the position of first assistant surgeon. I became associated with the staff of the Children's Hospital, and was appointed junior assistant surgeon in 1912. I have been surgeon to the Boston Consumptives' Hospital for seven years. I have been on the staff of the Boston Dispensary. I have been connected with the teaching staff of Harvard Medical School practically since graduation, up to the present year, when I failed of reappointment. I have a long list of articles on surgery to my credit, and two books. I have read papers by invitation before the Massachusetts Medical Society, American Medical Association, and the British Medical Association. I acquired the distinction of "Who's Who" in 1914, and more recently "American Men of Science," and "Leading Greeks." I am a councillor of the Massachusetts Medical Society, secretary of its surgical section, and a member of the Auxiliary Board of Managers of the Industrial School for Crippled and Deformed Children.

Address	(home) 321 West 20th St., Lorain, O.; (business) Glenville High School, Cleveland, O.; (temporary) Care of Rand, McNally &amp; Co., 536 South Clark St., Chicago, Ill.

AT the time of the 1912 report I was at Asheville, N. C., recovering from a severe breakdown. After a winter in California, I returned to work at Easter, 1913, and lasted until the end of October. I went all to pieces that time and after a year and a half took up work as a travelling salesman for the educational department of Rand, McNally & Co. of Chicago. I have succeeded to the agency for the state of Ohio.

My present job is to call on the superintendents of schools throughout the state and some of the colleges and universities. It offers an opportunity to know at first hand a lot about education in the state from top to bottom. Two phases that have been particularly interesting lately have been the transformation of the rural schools, which promise to surpass city schools in teachers' equipment and product, and secondly, the movement in the cities toward civics of a vital sort, particularly community civics and transforming of the immigrant.

DURING the year 1902-03 I was at the Harvard Law School. I got a job at the University Press, Cambridge, Mass., in the fall of 1903; went with A. C. McClurg & Co. (publishers) Chicago, in June, 1904; went to F. A. Stokes & Co. (publishers) New York, in May, 1905; went to Reilly & Britton Co. (publishers) Chicago, in January, 1909; started the Publishers' Press, a printing establishment, in September, 1909; sold the thing out, after having lost money, in July, 1914; left Chicago July 23, 1914, and came to New York, and started to work for H. E. Lesan Advertising Agency; left there December 20, 1914, and took a job with The Modern Hospital, a magazine published in St. Louis; left The Modern Hospital December 20, 1915, and went with the Chappelow Advertising Company, St. Louis; left Chappelow in April, 1916, and went to Picard & Co., Advertising Agents, New York City; left them July 5, 1916, and went to the Cheltenham Agency, which has since become the Corman Cheltenham Company, Advertising Agents. This is where I should have gone in July, 1902. I fully expect to continue here for many years, though the advertising business is such that changes among both men and firms are common.

I stayed with this firm until May, 1909, when, through dissolution of the firm, I was obliged to look elsewhere. At the time of leaving I was office manager. I immediately entered the Stock Exchange firm of W. G. Nickerson & Co., 59 Congress St. I am still with this firm, being in charge of the Bond Department at the present time. The firm name is now Codman Fletcher & Co.

100 CLASS OF 1902 — REPORT V

My life has not been very eventful since leaving Harvard. I have travelled a little in this country and Europe. I served three years as a private in Battery A, from 1901 to 1904. I enlisted again last March in the Headquarters Company of the 1st Regiment Field Artillery, Mass. National Guard, and served my time on the Mexican Border as private and corporal in that organization.

My relaxations consist of shooting, fishing, sailing, horseback riding, and auction. These being all fairly expensive tastes, I do not relax a great deal.

I have held no offices of honor or trust that are worthy to be embodied in these records, and, in short, I think my life history would be considered hopelessly conventional.

Occupation Novelist.

Address (home) Springfield, Mass.; (business) 8 West 40th St., New York, N. Y., Care of F. A. Munsey Co.

BEFORE graduating, I received an offer from the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York to write advertising matter. This I accepted. I wrote insurance dope for one year, thereby developing my imagination and power of handling fiction to such an extent that when I left to paddle my own canoe on the stormy seas of literature my first stories were immediately accepted by Collier's, McClure's, American Magazine (then Leslie's) and many others. I advise any young man who wants to acquire imagination and become "a fictitious writer," as an old farmer once called me, to write advertising matter for a life insurance company.

My career, so far, has been one of continuous application to the typewriter. I have, so far, published about 250 short stories, articles, essays and novels. Twice I have been to Europe to gather material. I have also travelled more or less over the United States of America, on ditto mission bent. I have been in politics off and on, for a number of years, as a Socialist. I ran for Congress and later for Governor, in Maine, on the Socialist ticket; defeated by largest plurality ever given in State. I have done a bit of anti-militarist work, and wish I had time to do more. Sometimes I wear whiskers, and sometimes don't. The former, when going out to lecture or run for something — because whiskers really conceal a good deal of one's face when it comes right down to cases.

I can't think of anything else, except that so far I have kept out

HERMANN THEODOR FICK

Born St. Louis, Mo., May 12, 1880.

Parents Wilhelm August Otto, Marie Louise (Lamprecht) Fick.

School Boston Latin School, Boston, Mass.

Degree A.B. 1902.

Unmarried

Occupation Teacher.

Address (home) 811 Ridge Ave., Evanston, Ill.; (business) Middlesex School, Concord, Mass.

UPON graduating from college, I taught for two years at Stone School, Boston, Mass., under that most excellent man and teacher, Charles W. Stone. In the fall of 1904, I took a position at Smith Academy, St. Louis, Mo., as teacher of Greek, French, and English, and remained there for five years. My summers during this time, and also in 1910, were spent in West Virginia at Camp Greenbrier, a camp for southern boys up to the age of eighteen. In 1909 I returned to Harvard for graduate work, mostly in the classics. I went back to college with the intention of getting a Ph.D., but trouble with my eyes caused me to lose much valuable time and I failed of my object. The year 1912 found me teaching again, this time at Volkmann School, Boston, Mass. I stayed there only a year. The next fall saw me in my present position, where I have been teaching Latin and German ever since. Life at Middlesex has been very pleasant. It is therefore with the greatest regret that I am leaving at the end of this year to become Associate Headmaster of the Milwaukee Day School, a new school which is opening in September.

Address 40 Linwood St., Roxbury, Mass.

MY connection with the class of 1902 came about on account of special courses which I took at Harvard in 1898-99, while I was a student at the Episcopal Theological School of Cambridge, from which I was graduated in 1901. On June 19, 1901, I was ordained deacon by Bishop Lawrence. I went at once to New York as assistant curate of Calvary Church, at which I was ordained priest on Trinity Sunday, 1902. In June of that year I became associate priest of St. Stephen's Church, Boston, a position which I filled for five years. In October, 1907, I became associate rector of St. John's Church, Roxbury, succeeding to the rectorship on November 1, 1908. Since 1903 I have been a member of the Sunday School Commission and the Board of Education of the diocese of Massachusetts. For the past seven years I have been secretary of the Sunday School Union of the diocese. In May, 1912, I was elected a delegate to the Sunday School convention of the New England department. In April, 1916, I was elected a member of the Standing Committee of the diocese.

I HAVE lived in and about New York since the last report. I have practised law, acted as trustee for two estates, and travelled in this country and Europe. Before leaving home, I served four years in the First Corps of Cadets of Boston. On October 30, 1913, I enlisted as a private in Company I of the 7th Regiment of New York, was elected Lance Corporal in the spring of 1916 and was appointed Corporal in June, and mustered into Federal Service. I served about five months at McAllen, Texas, and on patrol duty along the Rio Grande, and was mustered out December 2, 1916. It was the most interesting experience I ever had. I have also been twice at Plattsburg military training camps, serving as Corporal and acting First Sergeant. I was nominated for a First Lieutenant but was recalled to my regiment for Border service before it could be confirmed.

GEORGE SHANNON FORBES

Born	Boston, Mass., March 17, 1882.
Parents	George Fairfield, Elizabeth Lemmon Prentiss (Shannon) Forbes.
School	Roxbury Latin School, Boston, Mass.
Degrees	A.B. 1902; A.M. 1904; Ph.D. 1905.
Unmarried
Occupation	Assistant Professor in Harvard University.
Address	(home) 2 Prescott St., Cambridge, Mass.; (business) Boylston Hall, Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass.

THE pursuit of knowledge was continued for three years in the Harvard Graduate School, with assistantships in quantitative analysis, theoretical chemistry, and physical chemistry to help in keeping me out of mischief. The tangible results of this period were debts, and a thesis entitled "Energy Changes involved in the Dilution of Zinc and Cadmium Amalgams" which sufficed to get the Ph.D. degree. The following year was spent as Carnegie Assistant to Professor T. W. Richards, working with him on one of the numerous researches which have lately been recognized by the award to him of the Nobel Prize. After that I spent a year as John Harvard Fellow, studying chemistry in Berlin and Leipzig, and in enjoying travel, mountain climbing and the acquisition of new points of view. In this year I settled my professional future by the refusal of an attractive offer from the General Electric Company and the acceptance of a position as associate in chemistry at Bryn Mawr. The next two years emphasized the difference between the understanding of ideas and their constructive application in college lecturing. Bryn Mawr is not a jolly place for an unmarried man; some of my colleagues took measures to remedy the lack, but I did not, and welcomed the offer of a position at Harvard in 1909. Here seven years have slipped by most congenially, with advance to the rank of assistant professor. The "cost of living" has been neutralized, and more, by agreeable additional teaching in the Harvard Summer School and Radcliffe College. Research, committees, duties as chief reader and later as chief examiner in chemistry for the College Entrance Examination Board, church activities, musical interests, friends, and so on, have filled every day and every hour of each year except a month or so in each summer, spent in Newfoundland or Cape Breton, or country or seashore in the United States.

PUBLICATIONS: Articles in scientific periodicals, especially in the Journal of the American Chemical Society.

MEMBER: Harvard Club of Boston; American Chemical Society; American Electrochemical Society; American Association for the Advancement of Science; Fellow of American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

Unmarried
Occupation	Transportation.
Address	(home) 37 East 39th St., New York, N. Y.; (business) 350 West 38th St., New York, N. Y.

I HAVE nothing to add to the previous record except that I am slightly heavier in person, and slightly balder, but have gained an inch in height. This is as personal as I care to be and may enable my old friends, whom I shall be very glad to see at the reunion (and this means every one of them, so all take note not to disappoint me), to recognize me among what I sincerely hope will be a real mob of "twos."

SANFORD DEWEY FRANCE

Born	Seward, N. Y., Nov. 28, 1876.
Parents	William Steward, Maria (Borst) France.
School	Oneonta Normal School, Oneonta, N. Y.

Occupation Lawyer.

Address (home) 335 Buffalo Ave., Niagara Falls, N. Y.; (business) 117-130 Gluck Bldg., Niagara Falls, N. Y.

GRADUATED from the Law School in 1904; was in the office of Hornblower, Byrne, Miller and Potter, New York City, until the spring of 1906; in the office of Kenefick, Cooke, Mitchell & Bass, in Buffalo, from 1906 to spring of 1908, then associated myself with the law firm of Cohn and Chormann at Niagara Falls and became a member of the firm of Cohn, Chormann, and Franchot, July 1, 1908. I was elected a member of the Constitutional Convention of the State of New York of 1915, and helped frame a proposed new constitution which when submitted to the voters was snowed under by the overwhelming majority of more than 500,000 votes. I still cling to the impression, however, that this was an "office of honor or trust" — or both — worthy to be listed here.

TO the best of my recollection, I have already explained to an anxious and interested public all momentous events of my life since leaving college up to three or four years ago. To the best of my knowledge and belief, the facts as then outlined have not been changed by the several years which have flown since their transcription.

Life for me is nothing more or less than a constant struggle to keep my income to such a point that I have a little time and a little money left over to play golf. Having struggled with golf for some twenty years, I have reached the point where I am almost a good golfer. Over and over again I have come very close to being a great golfer, but somehow or other somebody turns up at the psychological moment with the idea in his head of demonstrating that I am entirely mistaken as to my skill. Most unfortunately the demonstration is accurate, forceful and to the point.

Of next importance to golf in my life is the Woman question. Mrs. Francis, entirely without my knowledge, approval, or consent, entered and honorably graduated from Bryn Mawr College, an institution generally supposed to educate women, but which, as a matter of fact, exists primarily to humiliate men. It was by the merest chance that I came to live in the town which boasts of Bryn Mawr College as its proudest institution.

It seems to me that the yearly calendar is hardly extensive enough to contain all of the meetings held in this quiet village for the promotion of Women's Suffrage; the enriching of the poor; the impoverishing of the rich; the advancement of learning among the ignorant; the purifying of food, politics and males; and thirty or forty other uplift movements of the same sort.

It seems unjust for me to condemn any of these worthy crusades, as there seems to be plenty of time left over for the proper management of the house, home, children and myself, which is done with great skill, effectiveness, economy and kindness.

I have attended the usual number of Harvard dinners, which have been delightful as always. One point about them which has worried me a good deal is — it is explained at these dinners, as it has been explained many times before, that to be a Harvard man is in itself pretty nearly sufficient for any ordinary human; but that to be a leading Harvard man among Harvard men is the sublimest height of achievement. Of course, I thoroughly agree with this, but I somehow or other have a terribly hard time convincing the general public that such is the case. Of course, if you will read again the last line or two the answer becomes perfectly evident.

Otherwise, life seems to be simply delightful.

Except for a good many useless newspaper articles, more or less technical, I have never written anything. I am glad that I cannot write, for if I could, it might have been I and not Owen Wister who wrote the verses about Mr. Wilson and had them published at a most critical period of our national existence. Incidentally, I am a Republican.

JOHN GALLARD, Jr.

Born Mobile, Ala., Dec. 8, 1878.
Parents Thomas, Amelia (Howard) Gaillard.
School Barton Academy, Mobile, Ala.
Degree S.B. 1902 (1904).
Unmarried
Occupation Accountant.
Address P.O. Box 226, Mobile, Ala.

I ENTERED the tropical service of one of the banana companies in 1905, and during the ensuing nine years occupied accounting positions in Panama, Guatemala, and Honduras. In 1912 I was appointed division auditor for the United Fruit Company at Puerto Cortes, a position of some responsibility and the pinnacle of my achievement so far in the business world. And a "pinnacle" it really was: a pinnacle with a most precipitous descent, so that in anno domini 1914, I either tripped, or was quite unceremoniously shoved into the abyss, and head over heels, like Satan, I have been falling ever since. C'est à rire! I returned to the United States an appreciative student of the "Prince" of Machiavelli, and with the exception of a visit to Boston and a hunting excursion to San Antonio, I have resided in Mobile, very much as a bird in a cage, to the present time. It must not be assumed, however, that Mobile is actually to become my ultimate doom. I have not yet struck the bottom of the abyss, and though no one can say how much deeper it may be, I cannot believe it is so fathomless as that, and I hope that when the class report is published in 1922, my space, rather than an obituary, will contain the account of some worthwhile fait accompli. The life in Central America developed a high sensitiveness to the call of the wilderness places of the world, and I shall trust that my chance will yet come through one of our expanding corporations in South America — preferably in a country like Brazil. Or, perhaps it will be through an opportunity to join some scientific expedition in a trip of exploration. In the meantime, if obstacles can be overcome, I shall volunteer for service with the American Ambulance in France.

Address (home) 120 West 37th St., Minneapolis, Minn.; (business) Care of Armstrong Cork and Insulation Co., 937 Plymouth Bldg., Minneapolis, Minn.

AFTER leaving College in the spring of 1900 I went to Houston, Pa., as mine superintendent for the Midland Coal Company of Pittsburgh. Later I held a similar position with the Pittsburgh Coal Company. In 1904 I moved to Joplin, Mo., where I had charge of the mining property of the Pittsburgh-Missouri Zinc and Lead Company, the Pittsburgh-Joplin Lead and Zinc Company, and the Highland Zinc Company. Early in 1910 I left Joplin to become salesman in the Pittsburgh insulation department of the Armstrong Cork and Insulation Company. In 1911 I was transferred to the Chicago office and later to Minneapolis as manager of the office there.

JAMES HUNTER GAULT

Born Port Carbon, Pa., Nov. 10, 1867.
 Parents Benjamin Hamplon, Hannah (Perry) Gault.
 School Privately and at University of Virginia, Charlottesville, Va.
 Degree S.B. 1902.
 Unmarried
 Occupation Mechanical engineer.
 Address (business) Herrick Bldg., Providence, R. I.; (home) 226 Pine St., Providence, R. I.

ON graduating I went into a large manufacturing plant in Philadelphia, engaged in the production of machinery and metal stampings, and after four years with this concern removed to Providence, R. I., to become superintendent in a similar concern in this city, which position I held for seven years.

In 1913 I left this position to become a general practitioner and consulting engineer, which I have followed now for nearly four years, during which time I have developed a number of automatic machines for various purposes, the most important of which is an automatic machine for measuring and winding narrow fabrics, which I have patented, and which is of considerable importance in several branches of the textile industry.

MORRIS L. GAY

Born Austria, Dec. 11, 1877.

 Occupation Commission merchant — Silks.
 Address (home) 5929 Pulaski Ave., Philadelphia, Pa.; (business) 1033 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.

AFTER leaving College I went to Sacramento, Cal., to work for Weinstock, Lubin & Co. I stayed only a few months. I returned to Boston, Mass., and secured a position with Rogers, Brown & Co., selling pig iron until May, 1905. At that time I removed to Philadelphia to enter the retail business of Louis Stecher and remained with him until the business was liquidated in June, 1906. Afterward I tried two ventures — one selling soft coal for Smith & McKee, Philadelphia, and the other working for the National Cash Register Co. In November, 1907, I started in my present business of commission silks to the manufacturing trades in Philadelphia.

 Occupation Manufacturer and merchant.
 Address (home) Valley Road, Lawrence Park, Bronxville, N. Y.; (business) Duralex Bldg., New York, N. Y.

I AM gradually retiring from business. I've worked long enough and hard enough and got enough. I've been a banker, manufacturer, and merchant and had a fine time. I got all there was out of life as I went along. I have a peach of a family, an attractive home, best of health, could still pass for twenty-five. Nobody has anything that I want. I like to motor, play golf, sail, and go to warm climates in cold weather and keep in a contented and happy state of mind. No gray hairs or wrinkles for mine. We have only one life to live and so many make themselves sick over it. For myself I can't see it that way at all.

MEMBER: Lawrence Park Country Club, Bronxville, N. Y.; Pelham Country Club, Pelham Manor, N. Y.; Scarsdale Club, Scarsdale, N. Y.

SINCE the publication of the previous class report I have continued the practice of my profession in Boston without notable incidents. My hospital connections are the same and I have received no new appointments. On January 1, 1915, I was chosen Editor-in-Chief of the Boston Medical and Surgical Journal and still hold this position. I have recently been elected Second Vice President of the American Medical Editors' Association. I have published no new book, but have contributed various papers to current medical literature.

MEMBER: Harvard Club of Boston.

ELBRIDGE HOWE GREENE

Born Cambridge, Mass., Aug. 28, 1879.
Parents Elbridge Andrew, Arletta Thorp (Rand) Greene.
School Phillips Exeter Academy, Exeter, N. H.
Degree A.B. 1902.
Married Anna Victoria Anderson, Cambridge, Mass., June 23, 1906.
Children Elbridge Howe, Jr., March 21, 1907; Albert Howe, Jan. 13, 1914; Richard, March 2, 1916.
Occupation Salesman.
Address 1010 Laurel Ave., Bridgeport, Conn.

MY first work after graduation was coaching the Washington and Jefferson football team at Washington, Pa. Then I got to "work" in the shoe business at Rockland, Mass., first with Rice & Hutchins and then with the Hurley Shoe Company. During my first seven years out of college I assisted in coaching the university eleven in Cambridge, devoting anywhere from a week to the entire season with the eleven. In 1908, after leaving the shoe business, I came to Bridgeport, Conn., and went into the coal and grain business, but remained in that line only a little over five years. I then went with the Crane Company as assistant sales manager of their Bridgeport division. In 1915 I accepted a position with the National Radiator Company, representing them in western Connecticut.

During this time I have been a vice-president of the Harvard Club of Connecticut for three terms and later president. I have represented the Club as delegate to the New England Federation of Harvard Clubs, and in 1916 I was their representative in the council of the Associated Harvard Clubs.

MEMBER: Seaside Club of Bridgeport, Harvard Club of Connecticut.

AFTER spending the year following graduation at the Pencoyd Steel Plant, I was fortunate enough to be employed during the summer of 1903 on the construction of the Stadium (Harvard), having charge of the party giving lines and grades for the various construction operations. Professor Hollis was in general charge and he chose as his badge of office a blue flannel shirt, with or without a necktie, depending on his state of mind when he put on his "uniform." One of his chief duties was entertaining many of the almost endless procession of visitors to the work and assuring them that reinforced concrete was a strong and enduring material, even though it had comparatively recently come into general use and that the structure would probably last over the first winter in spite of vigorous frost action. He seemed positive that concrete slabs would make soft, warm, and otherwise comfortable seats in spite of occasional showers or a chill November wind, but the most repeated argument was that in case the popularity of football should wane the Stadium would still be used for track meets and might be remodeled to accommodate the baseball diamond. Everyone was assured that the structure was built strong enough to hold the Yale game crowds and construction would be completed in time to give everyone, doubters and enthusiasts, a chance to view the game from a seat in this novel structure. It was wonderful to see the tact and patience with which he repeated these points to all inquirers, not neglecting even the large subscribers to the building fund.

In view of the enormous increase in the size of football crowds and the huge amphitheatres recently built at other universities, as well as the tremendous development of reinforced concrete as a structural material, many of these doubts raised in the minds of men of affairs seem strange, but the Harvard Stadium was pre-eminently a pioneer structure and the large conservative element was "from Missouri." It is a matter of common knowledge, however, that the radical element did compromise to the extent of providing narrow boards, planed or unplanned, for seats in place of the Morris chairs with tarpaulin covers which one faction demanded.

Professor L. J. Johnson did most of the structural designing, and his complete investigation of the literature of reinforced concrete, which was then in its infancy, comparatively speaking, gave him an opportunity to rise rapidly to the pre-eminent position which he has held for many years as an authority on the subject.

It is unnecessary to state that after superhuman efforts at completion the Stadium was given a dress rehearsal at the Dartmouth game and blossomed forth as a real college utility for the Yale Game, a few wooden posts judiciously placed alongside some of the concrete piers proving that the "safety first" movement started in Cambridge, Mass., in November, 1903. Structurally the Stadium was a wonderful success, but athletically, as is too well known, it was a hoodoo from the very start and continued so for altogether too long a time.

After working all summer, from daylight until dark, (there being no eight-hour law at that time), for my Alma Mater, I went to New York City and joined the Harvard contingent employed on the engineer corps of the new subway, then building. By 1905 this work was finished and I spent the following year in the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad on the construction of the passenger terminal in New York City.

Early in 1906, when the project to bring water from the Catskill Mountains to New York City was beginning to take definite form, I was one of a number of Harvard graduates connected with this engineering organization sent out to locate and construct sixty miles of the Catskill Aqueduct, under the supervision of Mr. Robert Ridgway. The latter, although not a college graduate nor a man of large means was for several years one of the Visitors to the University and he has in many ways shown unusual interest in Harvard graduates.

I was assigned to have charge of the engineering work on a section several miles long on the east side of the Hudson River about opposite West Point. Locating an aqueduct in this extremely rough country presented many interesting problems, the final location including several tunnels, one over two miles long through the Garrison Hills. The building of this section was included in the first construction contract on the Catskill Aqueduct, but for various reasons the work proceeded rather slowly and was not completed in 1911, when I was transferred to New York City to be first assistant to the engineer supervising the construction of the Aqueduct tunnels under Manhattan and Brooklyn, including the East River tunnel. This project is unique for delivering water in large quantity at high pressure into the heart of a large city. The tunnels are driven through solid rock at a depth of several hundred feet and take the place of more pipes than could possibly have been laid in the streets at the usual depth.

During the height of the tunnel driving about eight tons of dynamite was used every twenty-four hours in Manhattan alone on this project, but fortunately no injury was done to any of the millions of people who daily passed the various shaft structures.

Early in 1914 I became general assistant to the head of one of the largest contracting firms in New York City and am still employed in that capacity. This work gives opportunity for coming in contact with almost every sort of human activity in an extremely practical way. Among several large construction contracts carried out by my firm in the last few years is the section of new subway on William Street, New York, now nearing completion. The street, only forty feet wide, is flanked with tall buildings comprising a portion of the financial district, and as the underlying material is mostly fine sand saturated with water, the large property owners did not take kindly to the idea of having a subway built twenty feet below the foundations of their twenty-story buildings. They fought the project in the courts for ten years, but were at last overruled, when the feasibility of the scheme was demonstrated beyond question. New and deeper foundations were put under the buildings and the subway is practically completed, without damage to adjoining property and without serious accident. It can be stated with becoming modesty that this work has been given much publicity in the press and has received much favorable comment from many sources. It may even be asserted that moving pictures of the various operations are now being circulated about the country.

DONALD GREGG

Born Hartford, Conn., June 4, 1880.
Parents James Bartlett, Mary (Needham) Gregg.
School Culler Academy, Colorado Springs, Colo.
Degree A.B. 1902; M.D. 1907.
Married Barbara Channing, Sherborn, Mass., Oct. 12, 1912.
Occupation Physician.
Address Wellesley Ave., Wellesley, Mass.

SHORTLY after the completion of the Decennial Celebration, I found time to become engaged, and a few months later married. I served as interne at the Boston Psychopathic Hospital, and since then have served as visiting physician to the Out-Patient Department of that hospital, and as associate with my father-in-law, Dr. Walter Channing, in running the Channing Sanitarium, Brookline. During the past year a new plant has been built for this Sanitarium at Wellesley. The fall of 1916 the newly equipped buildings — eleven in number — were opened. And since then I have been busy getting this new plant in running order.

PUBLICATIONS: Various articles in medical journals.

MEMBER: Harvard and Union Boat Clubs, Boston Society of Psychiatry and Neurology, and Boston Medical Library, Boston; Brookline Medical Club; New England Society of Psychiatry; American Medico-Psychological Association; American Medical Association; Massachusetts Medical Society; New England Historic Geneological Society.

ROYAL ARTHUR GROSENBAUGH

Born	Three Rivers, Mich., Sept. 3, 1880.
Parents	Louis, Katherine (Graybell) Grosenbaugh.
School	High School, Niles, Mich.
Degrees	A.B. 1902; A.M. 1903; A.B. (Albion) 1901.
Married	Harriet Rosina White, East Orange, N. J., April 2, 1910.
Child	Lewis Randolph, Nov. 4, 1913.
Occupation	Teacher.
Address	(home) 175 Halsted St., East Orange, N. J.; (business) East Orange High School, East Orange, N. J.

THE year subsequent to my graduation (1902-03) was spent at Harvard in the graduate department. After I had obtained my "A.M." I went to East Orange, N. J., as teacher of Latin and Physical Director. This combination lasted two years, after which time I was made head of the Latin Department. My interest in athletics, however, brought me back into the game as coach in football and baseball. I am still carrying these in addition to my work in Latin, and have had gratifying success in the shape of four New Jersey interscholastic football championships and one baseball. At present I am interested in the National Rifle Association and have been instrumental in organizing three clubs in East Orange; a men's club, a boys', and also a girls' club in the high school. My "Major," Latin, continues to occupy most of my time, and increases in interest. The school has grown from 450 to 1350 since I came and it keeps me busy meeting and anticipating the new developments. My greatest achievement was in persuading my present partner to incorporate with me in 1910. Two years later we admitted another to the firm, and now we senior members never have to hunt for something interesting to do in our spare time. I am already breaking him in for a job behind the line, and the indications are that he will make some one hustle in a few years!

MEMBER: Harvard Club of New Jersey; National Rifle Association, East Orange, N. J.

138 CLASS OF 1902 — REPORT V

Address (home) 44 Lloyd St., Winchester, Mass.; (business) 15 Beacon St., Boston, Mass.

DURING the year after graduation I was an assistant in the Harvard English Department, having a share in courses which were then, as in our own day, known as English 22, English 36, English 7a and English BC.

At the end of the year, that is, in June, 1903 — I resigned and joined the editorial staff of the Curtis Publishing Company in Philadelphia. There I remained until the following winter, when, in February, 1904, I was asked to become editor of the Bobbs-Merrill Company, in Indianapolis. I spent the next three or four years in that pleasant city, engaged in agreeable work, with many delightful associations, not the least interesting of which was daily contact with one of the most lovable, and certainly the most entertaining of the men of letters whom I have had the good fortune to know, the late James Whitcomb Riley.

In 1907 I came back to Boston, and during the nine or ten years since then have been connected with Small, Maynard & Company. My own special work is the editorial side of the business — the question of what shall be published and relations with the authors thereof. In the winter of 1911-12 and again the following winter I made business trips to Europe, the second time taking my wife with me.

PUBLICATIONS: "The Last Voyage of the Karluk, Flagship of Vilhjalmar Stefansson's Canadian Arctic Expedition of 1913-16, as related by her master, Robert A. Bartlett," 1916; in preparation (also with Captain Bartlett), "Northward Ho! A History of Arctic Exploration for Boys."

MEMBER: Harvard Club of Boston, Harvard Club of New York, Author's League of America.

RICHARD KING HALE

Born Boston, Mass., March 17, 1880.

Parents Josiah Little, Annie Skinner (Pierce) Hale.

School Hopkinson's School, Boston, Mass.

Degrees A.B 1902; S.B. (Mass. Inst. Tech.) 1904.

Unmarried

Occupation Civil engineer.

Address (home) 529 Chestnut Hill Ave., Brookline, Mass.; (business) 85 Water St., Boston, Mass.

AFTER graduation I entered Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and graduated in civil engineering in 1904. I have been practising engineering since that time in Boston. My firm name is Richardson & Hale, consulting engineers.

I enlisted in Battery A, Massachusetts Volunteer Militia, in 1902 and served through the several grades, including captain. I am now a major in the First Regiment, Massachusetts Field Artillery, National Guard, and in that position spent an interesting four months near El Paso, Texas, on Mexican Border service during the summer of 1916.

I have been editor of the Journal of the New England Water Works Association since 1909.

MEMBER: St. Botolph and Harvard Clubs, Boston; Harvard Club of New York; and several professional societies and associations.

ARTHUR WELLESLEY HALL

Born Dover, N. H., Aug. 30, 1878.
Parents Daniel, Sophia (Dodge) Hall.
School Berwick Academy, South Berwick, Me.
Degree A.B. 1902.
Married Inez Nora Bunker, Dover, N. H., Oct. 23, 1907.
Child Daniel, 2d., Feb. 12, 1909.
Occupation Lawyer.
Address (home) 87 Belknap St., Dover, N. H., and Eliot, Me.; (business) 5 Locust St., Dover, N. H.

I HAVE little to add to the Decennial Report. I am still engaged in the general practice of law. During the summer and fall months I make my home in Eliot, Me., a region unsurpassed for natural beauty and convenience to me in my work. I have taken no flyers in politics, and am plodding methodically along as a country "squire." Once a year, usually during the winter I spend about three weeks in New York, and this is my greatest diversion. Nothing highly exciting about this, but I can truthfully say I have made a fair wage, and found measurable contentment.

MEMBER: Massachusetts Commandery, Military Order of the Loyal Legion; Portsmouth Athletic Club, Portsmouth, N. H.; Harvard Club of New Hampshire.

Occupation	Mortgages and real estate.
Address	(home) 410 Seventh Ave., South, North Yakima, Wash.; (business) Coulee City, Wash.

THE summer after graduation I spent in Marquette, Mich., tutoring. In the fall of that year I went to Minneapolis, Minn., as Instructor in Latin and Mathematics in the Minneapolis Classical School. On June 1, 1903, I entered the editorial department of Rand, McNally and Company as associate editor of the educational department, and the next year I took charge of this work. In July, 1905, I became editor of the Farm Life Publishing Company, and later I also became manager of the office and the subscription department. I continued this work until January, 1907, when I went to Billings, Mont., to manage the Gazette Printing Company. Since 1909 I have been engaged in the real estate business.

Unmarried
Occupation Principal, Lunenburg High School.
Address (home) Littleton, Mass.; (business) Lunenburg, Mass.

THE September following graduation I entered the Law School, but within a very few days was taken with an illness which left my health impaired for two or three years. During this time my nearest approach to a regular occupation was as private tutor in Stamford, Conn., from October, 1903, to June, 1904. I was also in Stamford from February to November, 1905.

In January, 1906, I entered the employ of my father, Herbert Joseph Harwood, '77, a manufacturer of assembly chairs, with offices in Boston. In the summer of 1909 I left his employ to enter the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences to prepare myself for teaching. Upon my father's death in March, 1910, I entered his business again in partnership with my brother, Richard Green Harwood, '09, and remained until July, 1912, when I left to take up teaching.

I took a course in the Harvard Summer School in 1912, and that fall went to Ashland, Ky., as an assistant in the high school. Here I stayed three years, teaching a variety of subjects, mainly mathematics and history. In September, 1915, I entered my present position as principal of the Lunenburg, Mass., Center School and High School.

I have been President of the Littleton, Mass., Historical Society since 1910.

Child Lois Hancock, July 7, 1915.
Occupation Teacher.
Address 54 Halcyon Road, New Rochelle, N. Y.

SINCE graduation I have followed the profession of teaching. The dates of my service in the schools where I have taught are as follows: 1902-04, The Volkmann School, Boston; 1904-05, St. Mark's School, Southborough, Mass.; 1905-11, The Phillips Exeter Academy; 1911-12, graduate student, Teachers College, Columbia University; 1912-15, Principal of the Haverhill (Mass.) High School; since 1915, Principal of the High School at New Rochelle, N. Y.

At the time of the Decennial Report I was finishing my work for the Master's degree at Teachers College, Columbia. For a time it seemed that I should go on with my studies and aim for the Doctor's degree in education, and I was, in fact, awarded a fellowship in Teachers College for 1912-13, but during the summer an opportunity came to take up administration work as Principal of the High School at Haverhill, Mass. At Haverhill I spent three very interesting and helpful years. During my residence in Haverhill I was for two years President of the Haverhill Harvard Club and was privileged to help in founding a Harvard College scholarship for boys from Haverhill. During this time I was also a member of the committee on relations between the college and the secondary schools of the Associated Harvard Clubs.

In the summer of 1915 I received a substantial "call" to become Principal of the High School at New Rochelle, N. Y. As an avocation, I have done considerable newspaper writing.

PUBLICATIONS: Several articles in educational journals; (In preparation) "Centes Choisis" from Alphonse Daudet — one of a series of which Professor C. H. C. Wright of Harvard is general editor.

MEMBER: Schoolmasters' Association of New York and vicinity; Headmasters' Association.

Child Katharine Ann, Dec. 7, 1907.
Occupation General Manager New Mexican Printing Company.
Address Santa Fe, New Mexico.

WHILE seeking an opening in the newspaper field, I spent about seven months as a solicitor for the Pittsburgh, Pa., agency of the Equitable Life Assurance Society of New York. In September, 1903, I entered the employ of the Johnstown Tribune, where for nearly six years I was a member of the editorial staff. In December, 1911, I moved to Albuquerque, N. M., where I was employed as advertising manager of the Albuquerque Evening Herald.

After serving several years in this capacity, I was appointed manager and held that position until the spring of 1914, when the paper was sold to an eastern syndicate and I found a place in the advertising department of the El Paso Herald. In August, 1915, I was appointed manager under a receivership for the Albuquerque (N. M.) Traction Company, and I was in charge of the property of that company during a re-organization period in which tracks and power lines were completely overhauled and new rolling stock purchased. About the time we got Albuquerque street cars in good running order, Ex-Governor M. A. Otero of Santa Fe, came down to see me as the representative of the New Mexican Printing Company of which Bronson M. Cutting, Harvard '10, is president; and the result was my present job as general manager of the New Mexican Company, publishers of an English daily and a Spanish weekly and producers of all manner of printing.

148 CLASS OF 1902—REPORT V

Address (home) 1315 Myrtle St., Scranton, Pa.; (business) Y. M. C. A. Bldg., Scranton, Pa.

WHILE in Harvard and for six additional years, I supervised Y. M. C. A. night schools. For three years I was teacher of mathematics and science and director of the college department of the School of the Lackawanna, Scranton, Pa. For more than two years I was principal of the School of Mathematics and Mechanics, and the last five years principal of the Students' Encouragement Department and of the Field Employment Department of the International Correspondence Schools.

On April 1, 1916 I established The Hill Vocational Institute, which is a correspondence school that is more interested in the success of its students than in its own financial gain. Its motto is "Service to the Students."

LEON CLARK HILLS

Born Litchfield, Conn., Oct. 27, 1877.
 Parents Franklin Brutus, Fanny Miranda (Coons) Hills.
 School Public Schools, Torrington, Conn.
 Degree (s. 1898-1902, 1903-1904.)
 Married Ina Savilla King, New York, N. Y., Oct. 17, 1908.
 Child Norma Elizabeth, April 19, 1915.
 Occupation Engineering and investments.
 Address 235 North 7th St., Newark, N. J

IN July, 1902, I entered the employ of the Coe Brass Manufacturing Company, Ansonia, Conn. In the fall of 1903 I reëntered Harvard, continuing the study of engineering courses, with special stress upon the study of shipbuilding and marine engineering. On leaving the university in the summer of 1904, I began work for W. and A. Fletcher Company, marine engineers, of Hoboken, N. J. I aided upon the plans of the Governor Cobb, one of the first turbine steamers built in this country, and later upon the plans of the Hendric Hudson, a Hudson river boat. There being a dull period in the shipbuilding business, I left it in the fall of 1906, and entered the employ of the Otis Elevator Company of New York.

After an exceedingly interesting and busy, if not lucrative, service of eight years with the Otis Elevator Company, I left their employ in September, 1914, and, in the earnest hope of bettering the essential financial prospects of life, have been, during the past two years, actively interested in the investment field, with some slight success.

MEMBER: Harvard Club of New York, Harvard Club of New Jersey.

152 CLASS OF 1902 — REPORT V

FROM 1902 to 1905 I was a private tutor, from 1905 to 1908, Principal of High School, Washington, Conn.; the next year I was Superintendent of schools at Washington, Conn. From 1909 to 1913 I was master of French and English at the Brunswick School, Greenwich, Conn.

In 1913 I resigned my position, and for reasons of health returned to my home town. For the same reasons I began to play with the chicken business, but have become so interested in this work that I intend to continue in the same line as long as Fate allows.

I was a Trial Justice of the Peace from 1906 to 1912 and have been again since 1914. I have held certain positions in our local government — and have always been reelected, and have not, as yet had any bonds called.

Certain trusting individuals I have married — and certain others I have sent to jail. I have been married, but so far —

Degree	A.B. 1902.
Married	Ruby Annabel Stone, Reading, Mass., Dec. 26, 1902.
Children	Charles Hilman, May 11, 1904 (died Aug. 3, 1904); Helen Elizabeth, Oct. 8, 1905; Donald Fletcher, Sept. 29, 1910.
Occupation	Chemist.
Address	(home) 130 North Davis St., Woodbury, N. J.; (business) P. O. Drawer 424, Chester, Pa.

AFTER graduation I took a position with the Carnegie Steel Company as chemist at the Bessemer Plant. I stayed there a year, then went with the Eastern Dynamite Company, as research chemist. For some years I have been assistant director of the Eastern Laboratory of E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co.

JOHN HAYNES HOLMES

Born	Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 29, 1879.
Parents	Marcus Morton, Alice Fanny (Haynes) Holmes.
School	High School, Malden, Mass.
Degrees	A.B. 1902; S.T.B. 1904.
Married	Madeleine Hosmer Baker, Brooklyn, N. Y., June 27, 1904.
Children	Roger Wellington, Sept. 2, 1905; Frances Adria, Nov. 12, 1908.

Occupation Minister.

Address (home) 28 Garden Place, Brooklyn, N. Y.; (business) 61 East 34th St., New York, N. Y.

FOUR months before my graduation from the Harvard Divinity School, in March, 1904, I was ordained as a Unitarian minister, and installed as pastor of the Third Religious Society in Dorchester, Mass. In February, 1907, I became minister of the Church of the Messiah, New York City, and am still in service in this position.

During this period I have held various positions of trust in connection with church work, as President of the Unitarian Fellowship for Social Justice, Vice President of the Young People's Religious Union, Vice President of the Middle States Unitarian Conference, etc. At present I am Chairman of the Council of the General Conference of Unitarian Churches, and President of the Free Religious Association of America.

I have also been more or less busy with my pen. I have published the following books: "The Revolutionary Function of the Modern Church" (1912), "Marriage and Divorce" (1913), "Robert Collyer's 'Clear Grit'" (edited 1914), "Is Death the End?" (1915), "New Wars for Old" (1916), "Religion for To-day" (1917). I have contributed articles to such magazines as The North American Review, The Bookman, The Survey, etc.; and am now serving as associate editor of Unity (Chicago) and The Unitarian Advance (New York).

I have served as college preacher at Harvard, Yale, Cornell, Amherst, University of Wisconsin, University of Iowa, Bryn Mawr, Barnard, etc. — at some of these, like Sousa's new trombonist, "once — only once," at others, many times.

After fifteen years' hard work I am well and happy; believe more firmly than ever in the everlasting reality of religion and the permanent worth of the church; have unbounded confidence in democracy as the cure of all political and economic ills, and am therefore a socialist; know that the way of force can never bring us to the goal of international peace, and am therefore a pacifist; have trust in men and faith in God, and am therefore an optimist.

God bless us, every one!

A TRIP of four months abroad preceded my work in the Architectural School at Columbia University, which lasted from the autumn of 1902 to January, 1904. I next entered the office of McKim, Mead and White, architects. My work with this firm lasted until January, 1906, when I entered the office of John Russel Pope, architect, where I remained until May 1, 1908. During this period I acted in the capacity of both designer and associate. In association with Mr. Pope I designed and built the Women's Union Building at Fall River. On May 1, 1908, I opened an office for the practice of architecture under my name alone. This arrangement continued for three and a half years, during which I built the City Hospital at Danbury, Conn., the Savings Bank of Danbury, the Truesdale Private Hospital and the Quequechan Club of Fall River, and other work in and about New York. On January 1, 1912, William N. Taylor '03, and Louis S. Weeks joined me in a partnership under the firm name of Hooper, Weeks and Taylor, architects. In the fall of 1912 I opened an office with Frank C. Farley, '02.

Unmarried

Occupation Architect.

Address (home) 3 Acorn St., Boston, Mass.; (business) 15 Beacon St., Boston, Mass.

I REMAINED in Cambridge for two years after graduation, to obtain my S.B. in architecture, and during the next year worked as a draughtsman in the office of G. F. Newton in Boston. The following year I returned to Cambridge as an assistant in the Department of Architecture and in April, 1906, won the travelling fellowship in architecture, remaining abroad until August, 1908. On my return I was employed by Cram, Goodhue & Ferguson, Architects, (now Cram & Ferguson), and have remained in their employ ever since.

MEMBER: Harvard and St. Botolph Clubs, Boston; Boston Society of Architects; American Institute of Architects.

Born Worcester, Mass., June 22, 1879.
Parents George Harvey, Josephine (Mott) Hull.
School Roxbury Latin School, Boston, Mass.
Degrees A.B. 1902; LL.B. 1906.
Unmarried
Occupation Lawyer.
Address (home) 48 Concord Ave., Cambridge, Mass.; (business) 10 Tremont St., Boston, Mass.

AFTER receiving the degree of LL.B. from the Harvard Law School in June, 1906, I entered upon the practice of law in Boston, being admitted to the bar of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts on September 21, 1906, and to that of the United States

Circuit Court, District of Massachusetts, on November 26, 1907. Since my admission I have had various office affiliations, but for several years have been associated with Mr. Frank Gaylord Cook of Cambridge, who received his degrees from the College and the Law School in the '80s.

Modern sensational journalism has discovered the fact that the law is not the dry subject it used to be considered, since most cases now seem to be tried on the front page as vigorously as they are tried in court and I, too, have found that it brings one some very intense experiences.

Many other risks the lawyer runs are those of falling into conservatism, politics, and charity, into the first and last of which I have myself fallen. The last being evidenced by my being one of the Vice-Presidents of one of the Conferences of the Boston Associated Charities and a Director of the East End Christian Union, a Cambridge organization. I am also a member of the Council of the Massachusetts Civil Service Association.

Since graduation from College I have not wandered far afield, except for the following travels: In the summer of 1903 I went abroad with my family and visited England, Scotland and France and a small portion of Wales; in the summers of 1904 and 1907 I visited the cities of Quebec and Montreal, respectively — though in neither place was it my first experience there — and in August of 1915, in connection with the wedding of my brother at Superior, Wis., I saw something of that state, the region of the Great Lakes, and Province of Ontario.

Last summer I participated in the Naval Training Cruise for civilians conducted for the first time by the United States Navy and spent a month afloat on the U. S. S. Virginia, a battleship of about 15,000 tons, then in the Reserve Fleet. There were altogether nine ships carrying civilians, and those on our vessel included a substantial number of Harvard graduates and undergraduates. The experiences were very novel to us, but the members of the regular crew were very obliging with information and the cruise left a very pleasant memory. The civilians had their share of deck scrubbing, made a partially successful effort at washing their undress "whites," and learned to sleep soundly in a navy hammock. Some particularly enjoyable experiences consisted of a race regatta at Fort Pond Bay, Long Island, an affair as grandly staged as a Harvard and Yale race, though not affording equal glory for the participants, in which regatta I pulled an oar in the Virginia's dinghy; target practice with the three-inch guns at Tangier Sound, Chesapeake Bay, where I served as "first shell-man;" a landing party at Old Point Comfort and drill at Fortress Monroe; and some short trips on torpedo boat destroyers, the U. S. S. Winslow and the U. S. S. Benham.

MEMBER: Cambridge Social Dramatic Club, Cambridge Boat Club, and other informal organizations in Cambridge having a special interest.

CHARLES EDWARD JACKSON

Born	East Boston, Mass., April 14, 1878.
Parents	Henry, Annie Martha (Saker) Jackson.
School	Boston Latin School, Boston, Mass.
Degrees	A.B. 1902; B.D. (Episc. Theol. Sch., Camb.) 1904.
Married	Mary Roberta Sparklin, East Boston, Mass., Feb. 22, 1909.
Children	Nancy Sparklin, Jan. 26, 1910; Mary Louise, Feb. 18, 1915; Frances Turner, July 19, 1916.
Occupation	Minister.
Address	(home) 150 Rock St., Fall River, Mass.; (business) 160 Rock St., Fall River, Mass.

AFTER graduation from the Episcopal Theological School, Cambridge, I went to New York City to be Curate with the Rev. W. T. Crocker, '84, at the Church of the Epiphany, 35th St. and Lexington Ave. If one block further west, this would have been a West Side parish, a block further east, an East Side parish; its situation makes possible a church home for both types, in an interesting variety. In 1906-07 I was Vicar in Christ Church, Newark, N. J., thence going for a few months to St. Paul's Church, Newton Highlands, Mass. In October, 1907, I became Rector of my home parish, St. John's, East Boston. Here my intimacy with the history and social needs gave me a rare chance to share in the community movements for civic betterment. One pleasant privilege was membership in the Board of Trustees of The World in Boston. I was elected Secretary of the E. T. S. Alumni Association, which office I still hold. In September, 1912, I became Rector of the Church of the Ascension, Fall River, the oldest of the six Episcopal parishes. As President of the Massachusetts Sunday School Association for two years, I had an insight into the problems and privileges of religious education in the state. I have been interested in the coöperative action of the various religious communions and have seen definite results. Recently I was elected a member of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Massachusetts.

EDWARD WILLIAM CECIL JACKSON

WILLIAM DANIELS JAMIESON

Born Chicago, Ill., June 22, 1878.
Parents Malcolm Macgregor, Julia (Daniels) Jamieson.
School University School, Chicago, Ill.
Degree (s. 1898-1901.)
Married Helen Frances Sawyer, Boston, Mass., Nov. 7, 1908.
Occupation Manufacturing.
Address (home) 290 Mass. Ave., Lexington, Mass.; (business) 129 Federal St., Boston, Mass.

DURING my junior year my father failed in business and after some reflection I decided to resign. I had an opportunity to get in the rice milling business, and stayed in it just long enough to get interested, but not long enough to get a raise in salary. The company went out of business as they found it was not profitable to mill rice as cheaply at Grand Crossing, Ill., as it was in the sunny South.

I next went into a mining engineer's office in Chicago. I paid him for the first six months to teach me how to assay, worked for the next three months for nothing and finally got on the pay roll. It was a hot job. My father at that time was interested in a mine at South Dakota and it was my intention to go out there and look after his interest, but a sudden illness — a two months sojourn in the hospital, upset my plans completely. After I got my health back I went into the coal business. It seemed to me at that time that coal was something everyone had to buy, but after I got right into the business in earnest. I found that although I was with one of the oldest and most respected companies in Chicago, that there was a great deal of competition. However, I made enough money to buy my lunches, dinners and an occasional ice-cream soda.

I finally began to wonder if there was any future in the coal business and at last followed the advice of a very close personal friend and accepted a position in the Chicago Branch of the American Radiator Company, and I have been with the American Radiator Company ever since. From the Chicago Branch I went to the St. Louis Branch and was again transferred to the Boston Branch.

The most important thing in my life now happened. I became engaged and married. I lived in Brookline for a couple of years — then moved to the old town of Lexington and have been both happy at home and at the office.

I have one hobby — trying to raise Airedale terriers.

MEMBER: Harvard, Boston Yacht, and Boston Architectural Clubs, Boston; Airedale Terrier Club of New England; Airedale Terrier Club of America.

ROBERT FOSTER JANES

Born	Boston (Charlestown Dist.), Mass., Jan. 12, 1880.
Parents	Benjamin Franklin, Anna Louisa (Brown) Janes.
School	Cambridge Latin School, Cambridge, Mass.
Degrees	A.B. 1902; LL.B. 1904.
Married	Lucille Voorhis Whiteman, Rye, N. Y., Oct. 17, 1908.
Children	Louise Crosby, Jan. 19, 1911; Barbara, Jan. 20, 1916.
Occupation	Lawyer.
Address	(home) 521 West 112th St., New York, N. Y.; (business) 15 Dey St., New York, N. Y.

DURING my senior year I took the first year's work at the Harvard Law School, from which department of the University I received the degree of LL.B. in June, 1904. In March, 1904, while still at the Law School, I was admitted to practise law in Massachusetts, but never entered into active practice in that state. In the fall of 1904, after a summer of rest and recreation, I made New York City my home, and for a short time was undecided whether to follow the practice of law or to enter the field of real estate. In the spring of 1905 I took the New York bar examinations and, having passed, commenced the general practice of law in New York City, spending four or five months in each of several law offices of prominent lawyers. In January, 1906, I severed an association with the office of Frank V. Johnson, then New York attorney for the Travelers Insurance Company, and became associated with the Law Department of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company. This association continued until November, 1914, when I became one of the attorneys of the New York Telephone Company at its principal office, 15 Dey Street, New York City.

MEMBER: Harvard Club of New York, Association of the Bar of New York City.

Occupation Lawyer.
Address (home) 2 Bruce Road, Winchester, Mass.; (business) 50 Congress St., Boston, Mass.; 149 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

IN the fall of 1902 I returned to take a make-up examination, which I passed, entitling me to my degree. At the same time I entered the Law School of George Washington University, Washington, D. C., where I remained until April 1, 1905. I left before taking final examinations, in order to accept a position in Boston in the patent department of the United Shoe Machinery Company. I left in June, 1906, and became an associate in the office of Emery and Booth, counsellors-at-law, of Boston, Mass. In March, 1910, I became a member of that firm, the style of which was changed to Emery, Booth, Janney and Varney. We have offices in Boston and New York for the practice of patent, trade mark, unfair competition, copyright, corporation, and general business law.

JOSEPH JENSON

Born St. Charles, Ida., Dec. 5, 1867.
Parents Andrew, Hannah Jenson.
School Brigham Young College, Logan, Utah.
Degree S.B. 1902.
Married Irena Boyer Mendenhall, Salt Lake City, Utah, Dec. 23, 1896.
Children Joseph Richard, Nov. 24, 1897; Robert Elwood, June 6, 1901; Elna Catherine, July 15, 1903; Irena Mae, Oct. 16, 1904.
Occupation Consulting and construction engineer.
Address Springville, Utah.

DURING 1901-02, my one year in Harvard, I was on leave of absence from the Utah Agricultural College, Logan, Utah. In September, 1902, I returned to resume my former position as head of the School of Engineering and Mechanic Arts. I continued in this capacity until June, 1907, when I resigned to enter the field of practical engineering. In August of the same year I accepted the position of construction engineer for the Utah State Board of Land Commissioners. The immediate work in hand was an irrigation project known as the Hatchtown project, which included a large storage reservoir dam, diversion dam, canal and auxiliaries. Two years later, before the completion of this, the board undertook the construction of another much larger and more important irrigation project, known as the Pinti, for which I was appointed engineer-in-chief. This project, too, included a large storage reservoir dam and about sixty miles of diversion canal. I have also had charge of the state highway construction in two counties. I have been employed in addition as engineer on design, inspection engineer and consulting engineer on numerous private projects, including irrigation, highway, bridge, water and electric power engineering.

MEMBER: Commercial Club of Salt Lake City, Society for the Promotion of Engineering Education, National Education Association.

 Occupation Plant pathologist.
 Address Estacion Experimental, Santiago de las Vegas, Cuba.

IN 1905 I began as scientific assistant in plant pathology in the United States Department of Agriculture at Washington. During the five succeeding years the major part of my work consisted of investigations of the cocoanut bud-rot disease in Cuba, Jamaica, Trinidad, Demerara and Porto Rico.

In 1910 I became Pathologist of the Sugar Planters' Experiment Station at Rio Piedras, P. R. In 1911 I was sent by the Board of Agriculture of Porto Rico on a special commission to study the sugar cane diseases of Santo Domingo. In 1913 and 1915 I was on special commission from the United States Department of Agriculture to study the sugar cane diseases of the Southern United States.

In 1914 I was appointed Pathologist of the Experiment Station at Santiago de las Vegas, Cuba. In 1915 I was sent to Panama to report on cocoanut diseases about Bocas del Toro, and to study the banana disease also. I went as representative of the Cuban Department of Agriculture to the Second Pan-American Scientific Congress held in Washington, December and January, 1915-16. In 1916 I was appointed Chief of the Commission for Plant Inspection and Quarantine at Havana.

Occupation Sales manager.
Address (home) 1404 West 14th Ave., Spokane, Wash.; (business) Fred B. Grinnell Company, Old National Bank Bldg., Spokane, Wash.

IMMEDIATELY after graduation I went to Chicago, Ill., as one of three men selected from our Class to enter the employ of Franklin MacVeagh and Co., Wholesale Grocers, the theory being that that company desired to institute the plan of selecting from each class certain men to grow up with their company. While the treatment that I received from them was most courteous, I felt that I could see greater profits in other work, and after some eight months left the company to become a salesman for the firm of E. Naumberg, Commercial Paper, New York and Chicago.

After several months of travelling for that company I became imbued with the western fever and came to Spokane to enter the operating department of the Northern Pacific Railroad.

At the end of three years with that company I was called East by the death of my father in Somerville, Mass., and the next three years were spent in closing his estate and in disposing of his business affairs in Boston.

In October, 1909, I returned to Spokane and became identified with The Fred B. Grinnell Company, Real Estate Insurance, Rentals, Loans, etc., and am still with the company, having been Sales Manager for the past five years.

As for offices of honor or trust, I am at this time President of the Spokane Realty Board and hold numerous offices in the various Masonic bodies of this city, particularly in the Scottish Rite bodies and Shrine. I have also held most of the offices in the Harvard Club of Spokane and am at present its President; am Treasurer of the Spokane Notarial Association, which latter was organized primarily for the purpose of supervising the registration of those who hoped to acquire land at the time of the opening of the Colville Indian Reservation.

I have had no political ambitions, and aside from my Masonic connections have devoted most of my activities to affairs directly connected with business, such as the Spokane Chamber of Commerce, Spokane Ad Club, Spokane Realty Board, etc.

HAVING kept silence in previous reports in the presence of my betters, who were making history, I am moved to record a word of how the world appears to me at this hour of grace, fifteen years removed from kindergarten. Foremost among the "satisfactions of life," as old prexy dubbed them, are wife and children — two hearty winsome young lassies, whose fresh, small voices and inexhaustible store of capers furnish the delights long familiar to fathers of 1902. Next I may place the call of the open. Fortune has given me seven of the fifteen summers for tramping and climbing in the Eastern Mountains (a year in Colorado and several beside the Great Lakes) while the more recent accession of a motor-car brings the priceless hills and rock-bound shores of suburban Boston within hourly touch. As for the arts, I find poetry a pale and halting substitute for music, in most ranges of emotion; on the heights where in common with religion and philosophy it casts its broad visions or weaves its subtle dreams, one may rest for the moment enthralled, only to be jarred to waking by some noisesome injustice of actual life, which clamors for redress. From the "fine arts" I get the ordinary satisfaction which a fine building, a beautiful landscape, portrait, or model of the living bring to any sensitive eye. Lacking the craftsman's vision, I, nevertheless, suspect that in these arts, as in music, with which I am technically conversant, much passes as sanctimonious evaluation which is mere twaddle. That current judgments, standards, "laws," have been moulded by the predilections of a cult, and fastened upon the world by a bit of organization at the hands of the prevalent hierarchy from time to time through the years. Witness likewise the church government past and present, and the social order generally. At any rate I take hearty enjoyment in the musical classics, old and new, while finding often equal beauty in the tunes of the day, tunes anathema to musical Brahmins of hereabouts! No doubt they worship them in their boots, for they dance to them, at least! Snobbishness partout, my boy!

To turn to more general interests, one may find the keenest of satisfaction in following, while exerting his own feeble endeavors to mould, that public opinion that is attempting to bring some of our vaunted ideals — truth, liberty, justice, equality, humanity — into practical application in industrial and political life. I note in the last report that one of our members exhorts us to climb aboard the Socialist band-wagon, while another is working for the Roosevelt committee. More strength to them both, but to me the lesson of 1912 reads that we cannot get on without the shibboleths of the "Sacred Republican" and the "Sacred Democratic" parties. The fatuous conservatism of average human nature demands that the new wine shall at least be dispensed in the old bottles! Let us center our efforts on the immediate practical advance. In Massachusetts a constitutional convention holds forth an opportunity for making democracy more workable. A centralized efficient business machine brought nearer to popular control by short ballot, budget, proportional voting in larger representative districts. Initiative and Referendum to curb legislative bribery (direct or masked) by our great corporations and make possible any advance to municipal ownership, state food control, minimum wage, and the like. A free press uncontrolled by large advertisers or personal investment interests of its owners. Impossible ideal? Why not a state-owned newspaper, or at least a state-edited supplement to be carried by all private, journals? Our editors and reporters are progressive enough, once liberate them from financial control. If you doubt me get acquainted with one! Why should not Harvard business and legal interests — more particularly, the lawyers and business-men of 1902 — start a crusade to liberate press, pulpit, and state from the domination of their own vested interests? Is the feudalism of Calumet, of Lawrence, of Hopedale, less real than the enslavement of Belgium because within the law, less oppressive than the old Russian régime because flourishing beneath the sounding phrases of the American constitution? For there exists an industrial feudalism, however benevolent at times, so long as the views of our great New England alumnus and patron prevail, and the workers are denied right or voice in the direction of the industries to which they give their life's blood.

To be concrete let us ask why the morning newspaper controlled by a predominantly Harvard group in Boston should assail the health insurance proposals presented in the inaugural of a most moderate, once stand-pat, governor? Why oppose Workman's Compensation in its day? Because dividends to them are more important than the public interest. Ill-gotten millions for philanthropy, but not one cent for justice via pay-roll or tax-levy! Harvard held forth the fine ideal of Veritas to the ecclesiasticism of early New England: truth in science or religion costs little to uphold in these liberal days. The heresies which it is now perilous to support are the truths about industrial and social relations. "Keep politics out of the pulpit and the universities," is the cry of the sleek and comfortable. Why should not 1902 lead a movement to reconsecrate the ancient motto to that kind of truth which it costs to-day to maintain? The class has already given to the New York pulpit in Holmes a dynamic force well able to energize such a movement. Why not endow a chair to Social Justice and invite Scott Nearing to occupy it — a man cast out by U. of P. because he dared proclaim the truth about Philadelphia gas and traction interests. By all means let us gather for good fellowship. Yet in these solemn days when the younger classes are mobilizing for the defense of liberty abroad, may not the older classes mobilize for the spread of liberty and justice at home? If it be a fine thing to die for one's Country, should it be so infinitely harder to live for the common weal? May War prove the touchstone of our manhood!

Occupation Principal of Howard Seminary for Girls.

Address (home) Willsboro, N. Y.; (business) West Bridgewater, Mass.

THE only matters worthy of note in my life since 1912 are as follows:

We had two more sons, Clarence and Ralph, both of whom died.

After leaving North Stonington, Conn., in 1914, I spent one year in the Graduate School at Harvard and received my A.M. degree in 1916. I was elected to the Phi Delta Kappa, which is said to be the graduate equivalent of the Phi Beta Kappa. I was also elected Class Marshal.

In 1915 my very much better half and I leased the Howard Seminary at West Bridgewater, and appointed ourselves principals. This school had been closed for six months, owing to lack of patronage. We enrolled twenty-two pupils the first year and forty-five the second. We expect sixty to seventy next year. We find working for ourselves yields a much larger return in efficiency, in peace of mind, and in financial return.

FOR ten years following 1902 I taught mathematics, first in the South at Marion Military Institute, Ala., and later in the Middle West and East. In 1905 I went to Centenary Collegiate Institute at Hackettstown, N. J., a co-educational school and one of the best. There I decided to go West to Illinois, and later to Howe School, Lima, Ind., an ideal Episcopal boarding school. Back East I came, however, each summer, and soon I found myself teaching mathematics at Washington, D. C., fitting a few candidates for college and many more for Annapolis and West Point.

I was in Washington prior to and following the recent inauguration; and I am frank to admit that my routine duties, conscientiously and painstakingly done, gripped my attention far less than the many avocations at the capital city. "Down at the Capitol," was the invariable remark used which accounted for my "playing hookey" from the school up on Connecticut Avenue. So many hours I spent in the House and the Senate chamber that I shall long remember the vigorous speech makers and their stirring debates. I feel that I ought to be in Washington in the near future, and I am laying plans accordingly.

Address 453 Holland Ave., Los Angeles, Cal.

I LEFT Harvard in June, 1901, and in July entered the field force of the United States Forest Service, where I remained until the fall of 1903. I then entered the Yale Forest School and spent one year there, passing the United States examinations for a professional forester in the spring of 1904. I then held various positions in the United States Forest Service. During the past two and a half years I have been interested in forestry and land business in Los Angeles and San Bernardino counties. For one year I did special forestry work for Los Angeles county, but during the past year I have built up a consulting and contracting business as a forester.

Parents Edmund Webster, Virginia (Gholson) Kittredge.
School Franklin School, Cincinnati, O.
Degree A.B. 1902.
Married Helen Louise Gause, Wilmington, Del., May 1, 1909.
Children Gholson, Feb. 2, 1910; Courtlandt Gause, Dec. 19, 1910; Daniel Wright, Jr., March 31, 1912.
Occupation Literature.
Address Lock Box 1615, Washington, D. C.

IN July, 1902, I went to London, England, to represent a New England manufacturing concern for six months. Since then I have been constantly engaged in literary work, living chiefly in Colorado Springs, Cincinnati, New York and Cairo, Egypt.

In April, 1913, I was asked to join the staff of the New York Sun as an editorial writer. I had written special editorial articles and political burlesques for this paper throughout 1912. In June, 1914, I was offered and accepted the position of chief editorial writer on the Minneapolis Journal. In June, 1916, I was an editorial writer on the staff of the Philadelphia Bulletin. Recently I have given up journalism, and travel considerably, and do a good deal of studying and literary work in larger libraries, chiefly in the Congressional Library.

PUBLICATIONS: "The Memoirs of a Failure;" "All the World Loves a Quarrel."

Beverly High School. During the winter of 1910 I was "called" to New York to become head of the department of physical science in the Ethical Culture High School. This position I still hold and hope to continue to do so for the Ethical Culture School is the most ideal place in which to work that this green earth possesses.

From time to time, during the period from 1902 to 1910, I took graduate work at Harvard and at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. I was secretary of the New England Association of Chemistry Teachers from 1906 to 1908, and its president from 1908 to 1910. I was secretary of the Chemistry Teachers' Club of New York City during 1914, and its president during 1915. I was treasurer of the Physics Club of New York during 1914, its secretary during 1915, its vice-president during 1916, and its president in 1917.

I have served as reader for the College Entrance Examination Board for four years, as a member of the committee on education in the American Chemical Society, and as a member of numerous committees in connection with educational work.

Occupation Musician.

Address (home) 162 Bay State Road, Boston, Mass.; (business) 6 Newbury St., Boston, Mass.

I AM a teacher of the pianoforte, organ and harmony, organist and choir director of King's Chapel, leader of the Boston Harvard Club Glee Club, and do some recital work. With these and other odd musical jobs my time is occupied.

My family is much the nicest part of my life. As you may perceive upon close examination of the above statistics, "I like the ladies best."

I am chorister of the Harvard Club of Boston and also a member of the Board of Governors since 1915. I am a Republican, of a deep purple shade. But if Wilson Whisky were the only beverage left to us I should become a prohibitionist.

I have told you how I earn my living. This is how I spend it. Dr. E. P. Richardson is my family surgeon; Dr. Channing Frothingham, Jr., is my family physician.

The above gratuitous advertisement should greatly increase my net income next year if either "have a heart." That is all, I think.

Occupation Banking.
Address (home) Groton, Mass.; (business) State Street Trust Co., Boston, Mass.

AFTER leaving college I worked in the Adams Trust Company and with Perry, Coffin & Burr, going to New York in 1907 and working in the office of Hornblower & Weeks, stock-brokers, until 1912, when I returned to Boston. After a year with the real estate firm of Burroughs & Co., I went abroad in November, 1914, in the service of the American Ambulance Corps. I went north to the English Army in December and had charge for three months of a squad of ambulances serving with General Rawlinson's division about eight miles north of Bethune. I had charge of the ambulance section at Mrs. Whitney's hospital at Puilly through March, and on April 3, 1915, took out as section leader the first field section of the American Ambulance ever sent out to the front, to serve with the French armies in the field. I took this section to Alsace, where our work was in the Vosges mountains. I came home in August, 1915, and went to work with the Paul Revere Trust Company in November, 1915, which has since become part of the State Street Trust Company, where I am now. I was appointed personal aid to Governor McCall on his staff in December, 1915.

Unmarried
Occupation Real estate dealer.
Address (home) 4330 McGee St., Kansas City, Mo.; (business) Victor Building, Kansas City, Mo.

UPON leaving Harvard I became a lumber-shover in the Central Coal and Coke Company's mill at Neame, La. By the end of fourteen months I was one of the superintendent's assistants. During the year which followed I was the company's city salesman in Kansas City. Then, of a sudden, circumstances arose which made it necessary for me to change my business. Accordingly, I became what I now am and probably shall always remain, a dealer in Kansas City real estate, buying and selling, plotting and improving. For fourteen years I have been a vestryman in St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Kansas City. From June, 1909, to June, 1911, I was Treasurer of the City Club of Kansas City, an organization which has as its slogan, "Make Kansas City a good place to live in." In 1909 I succeeded in interesting the late Mr. Thomas H. Swope, then Kansas City's most philanthropic citizen, in a plan to establish in Kansas City a social settlement modelled after Hull House in Chicago. For the purpose, I obtained from him fifty thousand dollars. A second fifty thousand dollars was raised in small subscriptions from the people of Kansas City. Then, the Thomas H. Swope Settlement was established. In 1910 I was Vice-president of the settlement, and in 1911 and 1912 I was its President. In 1910 I was appointed by Governor Hadley to represent Missouri at the National and International Prison Congresses, which met in Washington, D. C. In 1911 I was chairman of the settlements and educational movements committee of the First Kansas City Child Welfare Exhibit. The same year I was appointed by Mayor Brown to represent Kansas City at the Missouri State Conference of Charities and Corrections.

Unmarried
Occupation Manufacturing.
Address (home) 101 Trowbridge St., Cambridge, Mass.; (business) 60 Arsenal St., Watertown, Mass.

IN September, 1902, I organized the Marsh Publishing Company and began the publication of a monthly magazine called The Suburban; the title was later changed to Suburban Life. I was editor and publisher of this publication until 1905, when I sold my interest and organized the Marsh Press, Incorporated, which took over an old established Boston printing and publishing plant. In 1907 I organized the Publishers' Press, Incorporated, a company formed to do general book manufacturing, specializing in the printing of school and college text books. Of this company, which absorbed the Marsh Press, I acted as treasurer and general manager. I was also occupied as the editor of Marsh's Magazine, a publication which I started in 1908. In 1910 I closed out all my printing and publishing interests. For the next five years I devoted my time to real estate and land development in Greater Boston. In 1916 I took over the Eastern States rights to the manufacture of the Zagelmeyer System Cast Stone Building Blocks. We have plants at Winchester and Watertown, Massachusetts, and are establishing a chain of plants throughout New England in principal centers. I am treasurer and general manager of the Watertown Concrete Company; treasurer and managing director of the Winchester Concrete Company.

Occupation Lawyer.
Address (home) 41 Wales St., Dorchester, Mass.; (business) 10 Tremont St., Boston, Mass.

AS I notice by reference to the Decennial Report that I then gave a detailed account of my activities since 1902, and as five years' advanced experience in life has taught me the relative small importance of the affairs of the individual in the world's work, I report merely that I have continued in the general practice of law. I find a measurably increasing income, but a seemingly doubly increasing outgo. Perhaps the stern necessities arising from the proper nurture of one wife and five boys point the reason.

WILLIAM HUGHES MEARNES

Born Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 28, 1875.

Address (home) Chew St. and Mount Airy Ave., Mt. Airy, Philadelphia, Pa.; (business) 12th and Brandywine Sts., Philadelphia, Pa.

SINCE the last report I have been steadily plodding at my business of heading the division of English in the School of Pedagogy, Philadelphia. As the main part of that business is the repairing and manufacturing of English, I have put forth articles and stories in magazines, published a novel, "Richard Richard," and am about to do it again in the fall of 1917 under the title, "Gorgas," price $1.35, for sale at all reputable bookshops, discount to Two-zers. On the side I have been steadily sleeping on boards, to wit, the Board of Managers of the Drama League, the Board of Trustees of the Oak Lane Country Day School, the Board of Directors of the Shady Hill Country Day School, the Board of Governors of Plays and Players, and — most sonorous of all — the Board of Directors of the American Society for the Extension of University Teaching.

PUBLICATIONS: "Richard Richard," a novel, 1916; "Gorgas," a novel, 1917, in the press.

AFTER graduation I spent three years in teaching in various "one-horse" private schools, where I learned a great many truths not taught at Harvard, e.g., that there are many fakirs and crooks seeking to exploit young, inexperienced graduates. Harvard could render a great service by exposing unscrupulous teachers' agencies, which care only for their commissions and never consider the character of the schools to which they send applicants, and by cleansing the teaching profession of self-seeking, incompetent, often immoral, principals and headmasters. The young graduate ought not to have his ideals of honor, right, and truth so rudely shattered that he comes to feel, as I did, that almost anything is preferable to teaching.

My next position, which I held from the fall of 1905 to May, 1911, was at the Paterson (N. J.) High School, where I taught German. The school was at that time housed in office buildings and overcrowded. The city authorities, in pursuance of a policy of economy, for four years did not grant a raise of salary to any male high school teacher. As all my friends kept leaving one by one to take better positions in Newark, Jersey City, or New York, I, too, became uneasy and determined to leave at the first opportunity.

In the summer of 1909, upon the recommendation of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, I was appointed by the Prussian Minister of Education as exchange teacher of English conversation in German secondary schools at a salary of 110 marks (about $27.50) a month. I accordingly asked for and obtained leave of absence for one year, and on September 23, 1909, accompanied by my wife, of whose loyalty and loving service I cannot speak too highly, sailed on the Prinz Friedrich Wilhelm, of the North German Lloyd, for lands unknown but dreamed of for years past.

My first German position, which I held until April, 1910, when I was transferred to the Realgymnasium at Potsdam, was at the Oberrealschule der Franckeschen Stiftungen at Halle on the Saale. At Halle I learned to spell and pronounce correctly the name of the school in which I was teaching, to observe the proper social usages and forms of address, and to require the exact amount of deference due from the grocer and the assistant janitor, to drink beer and wine ad libitum (sometimes also ad nauseam), and many more serious matters discussed in my report to the Carnegie Foundation f. t. A. of T. I also studied Middle High German (three flights high) and German history at the university, and accumulated a great deal of material dealing with local history and traditions, of which I hope to make use some day in the form of a novel or moving picture scenario.

I returned to America in September, 1910, and resumed my duties with energy and enthusiasm but found conditions in Paterson about the same. In the fall of 1910 I took the New York City examinations, which I passed. In May, 1911, I was appointed assistant teacher of German in the High School of Commerce, where I still am. Since the beginning of the war I have been teaching less German and more Spanish, in which I also have a license.

To speak of my gaddings about Gotham "longum est." Besides I cannot now add to the "Wahrheit" of my days that tinge of "Dichtung" necessary for a proper interpretation; I am too much a part of my present life to evaluate it rightly. I must change my viewpoint. Already I feel again the discontent of Faust and the "Wanderlust." Well I know the saying: "Coelum non animum mutant qui trans mare currunt," but New York weighs upon my spirit like a poison gas. I cannot breathe, I must have more room. Somewhere else the air is purer. Perhaps on the Pacific coast, perhaps in Buenos Aires. — ¿Quien sabe?

IMMEDIATELY after graduating I entered the employ of the Proctor and Gamble Company, Ivorydale, O., as assistant chemist. Soon after I was promoted to research chemist and assistant superintendent of their cotton oil refinery. In July, 1903, I went to Greenville, Tex., as chief chemist of the Texas Refining Company. I remained in Greenville until the summer of 1907, when I moved to Dallas, Tex. At the latter town I opened a small commercial chemical laboratory, which has grown each year until now it is the largest and best equipped commercial laboratory in the south.

Last year I built my own laboratory building, which is one of the very few owned by chemists in the United States. I am Chief Chemist to the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railroad systems, and consulting chemist for over two hundred and fifty corporations.

For three and a half years of this time I was also city chemist of

AFTER three years of service as tutor to a blind student in Cambridge, Mass., I went to Tokyo, Japan. For two years I taught in the Japanese government's First Higher School. Work in Keio Gijuku (University) was given in the second of those years.

Collegiate teaching in a southern state, in the Pacific Northwest, and in New England followed the period of residence in the Far East. Then, as a younger member of the family was ready for a "college course" (to be enjoyed near "Athens," of course), the (financial) single blessedness of teaching in collegiate shades was abandoned.

The strenuousness of tasks in secondary schools in the last six years has been relieved by substituting for a half-year in the courses of an associate professor of English in Amherst College, by attending a camp in Plattsburg; also, since I was not free to go with some other Harvard men to fight in Europe for freedom and honor, by working for some time in a plant that produced

Address      (home) 27 West 44th St., New York, N. Y.; (business) 195 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

I HAVE been connected with the telephone industry ever since leaving college. The first five years following graduation were spent in the engineering department of the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company at Boston. Since that time I have been connected with the American Telephone and Telegraph Company in New York City, having spent six years in the engineering department and three years in the accounting department of the above company.

EDWARD FRANCIS O'DOWD

Born            Boston, Mass., Jan. 11, 1880.
Parents       Martin, Agnes (Farren) O'Dowd.
School         Boston Latin School, Boston, Mass.
Degree         A.B. 1902.
Married        Teresa Marie Foley, Boston, Mass., June 29, 1904.
Occupation   Schoolmaster.
Address       (home) 18 Mather St., Dorchester, Mass.; (business) Frothingham School, Charlestown, Mass.

ON the completion of eighteen courses in 1901, I secured a leave of absence for my senior year and at once entered the teaching profession as a substitute in the Boston schools, day and evening. In June, 1902, after receiving my degree, I was elected to the principalship of the first Charlestown Vacation School, where I introduced athletics as a branch of the curriculum; this position I held for four seasons. In January, 1904, the School Committee appointed me sub-master in the Dudley District, Roxbury. In April, 1912, I received an appointment as master of the Frothingham District, Charlestown. In October, 1915, I was elected principal of the Hancock Evening School. In 1904 I organized and began to drill the Dudley School Cadets. This organization of one hundred boys still holds the honor of being the only elementary school military body in Boston organized and instructed according to United States Army regulations. In the spring of 1904 I organized and managed the Boston Grammar School Baseball League. This unofficial position I held until 1907. In that year the Department of School Hygiene and Athletics was created and I was then appointed play teacher and Roxbury representative on the permanent committee on athletic sports. For the last four years, as president of the Home and School Association, I have devoted much of my time to the civic, social, and educational advancement of the district in which I work and to the educational, social, and philanthropic features of club life. I have been privileged to travel much, during the summer vacation, both at home and abroad, and last summer I was very easily persuaded to give my vacation to my country at Plattsburg.

REMSSEN BRINCKERHOFF OGILBY

Born	New Brunswick, N. J., April 8, 1881.
Parents	Charles Filtz Randolph, Agnes (Brinckerhoff) Ogilby.
School	Roxbury Latin School, Boston, Mass.
Degrees	A.B. 1902; A.M. 1907; S.T.B. (Episc. Theol. Sch.) 1907.
Unmarried
Occupation	Minister.
Address	(home) Baguio, P. I.; (business) Baguio School, Baguio, P. I.

AFTER graduating from college with 1902, I spent two years teaching at Groton School and the next three studying theology, — two years at the General Theological Seminary in New York City and the third at the Episcopal Theological School in Cambridge, where I graduated in 1907 with the degree of B.D. For the next two years I served as assistant at St. Stephen's Church in Boston, and then in 1909 came out to the Philippines to establish, under Bishop Brent's leadership, a boarding school for sons of Americans in the Orient at Baguio. Baguio School has been very successful, and this is my eighth year as Headmaster. Over one hundred and thirty of our boys are now in the United States at school and college or making their way in the world. Their records are good. A number of them, sons of army or navy officers, are at West Point or Annapolis, and some in the regular army. Many of the sons of civilians in the Philippines come from the West and go naturally to Berkeley or other western colleges, but of course we send some to Harvard and also to Cornell. We once prepared a boy for Yale, but he recanted after one year at New Haven and graduates this year from Leland Stanford, expecting to go to the Harvard Law School.

I also have supervision over Easter School, Bishop Brent's school for Igorots at Baguio, and I spend some of my time in mission work among these attractive wild people of the hills. They make good students, true friends, and earnest Christians.

Parents	John Bartow, Clara (Morgan) Olmsted.
School	Buffalo Central High School, Buffalo, N. Y.; Phillips Exeter Academy, Exeter, N. H.
Degree	(c. 1898-1899.)
Married	Helen Marguerite Prescott, Foxboro, Mass., Oct. 24, 1903.
Children	Janet, Sept. 20, 1904; Prescott Seymour, April 17, 1908; John Morgan, Jr., Feb. 7, 1910.
Occupation	Manufacturer of steel.
Address	(home) Scottswood Road, Riverside, Ill.; (business) Electric Steel Company, Chicago, Ill.

UNTIL the fall of 1915 I was in the manufacturing business at Buffalo, N. Y. At that time I started the Electric Steel Company at Chicago, Ill., making steel from electric furnaces. I am at present Vice-President and General Manager. The process, while not entirely new, is essentially so in this country.

My family has neither increased nor decreased in numbers, but considerably in avoirdupois. I am of course not "speaking of the Lady" — but "speaking of the Ship." My boys are the heavy-weights and will be ready for College in eight or nine years.

IT never occurred to me how absolutely uninteresting the average man is until I started to write this young biography.

Since my last effort I have merely existed the life of the average commuter — to town each morning and home to the family each evening — an evening at the Club and one at church each week are fixtures, and we fill in the rest as fancy or our domestic arrangements or disarrangements dictate.

I could tell you a lot about my boy but you wouldn't believe it — so what's the use.

Occupation Architect.
Address (home) 7 Monroe Pl., Brooklyn, N. Y.; (business) 101 Park Ave., New York, N. Y.

AFTER graduating from Harvard, I studied architecture at Columbia College, subsequently going to Paris to pursue the same study. I attended the École Nationale des Beaux Arts in Paris from the years 1904 to 1907 inclusive, finishing the course there and receiving a Diplôme d'Architecture from the French Government.

Returning to New York in 1908, I undertook the practice of architecture in partnership with William O. Ludlow, under the firm name of Ludlow & Peabody.

Since that time, it has been my good fortune to receive some rather large and important pieces of work to design and construct. I am still striving as an architect to improve my own and the public's aesthetic development.

EDMUND LESTER PEARSON

Born Newburyport, Mass., Feb. 11, 1880.
Parents Edmund Carlton, Tamzen Maria (Richardson) Pearson.
School Newburyport High School, Newburyport, Mass.; Hopkinson's School, Boston, Mass.

Degrees A.B. 1902; B.L.S. (New York Univ.) 1904.
 Married Mary Sellers, Washington, D.C., Oct. 15, 1908.
 Occupation Writer.
 Address 476 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y.

SYNOPSIS of previous chapter: went to Albany to study at the State Library School, 1902-04; worked in various libraries, public, governmental, and private, in Washington, D. C., and Asheville, N. C., 1904-09; lived in Newburyport, Mass., chiefly engaged in writing, from the fall of 1909 to the spring of 1914.

Since 1906 I have written "The Librarian" department in the Wednesday edition of the Boston Transcript. I have also written a few special and editorial articles, and a large number of book reviews for the Transcript. I wrote about sixteen short stories for The Outlook. During part of 1914 I wrote "Books and Men" department in The Nation. The tragedy of my career lies in the fact that while I long to contribute light and fluffy fiction to magazines of the "Parisienne" type, all my connections have been with respectable, not to say learned, publications, and I am now the editor of some professional periodicals so grave that their leaves are seldom cut by anyone with a brow less than 30 centimeters high.

In the campaigns of 1912 and 1913 I was Chairman of the Progressive City Committee of Newburyport. During this period I was frequently assured by good friends and classmates that all Progressives were afflicted either with softening of the brain or incipient criminal tendencies, and that T. R. was a VERY BAD MAN. In the 1916 campaign many of these same wise folk informed me that all Progressives are idealistic patriots, and that Mr. Roosevelt is a far-seeing statesman. How we have changed!

Since April, 1914, I have been editor of publications for the New York Public Library, — a post very pleasant indeed, except for the comparatively slight opportunity it affords for the writing of risqué verse and fiction.

I attended the August, 1916, camp at Plattsburg, and was slightly wounded while crawling through the sixteenth barbed-wire fence at the Battle of North Beekmantown. A few stitches repaired the damage, however; khaki breeches are easily mended.

WILLIAM SIBLEY PIKE

Born Media, Pa., Jan. 29, 1876.
 Parents Isaac Smedley, Annie Catherine Pike.
 School Media High School, Media, Pa.
 Degree (c. 1897-1899.)
 Married Mary Alice Henry, Baltimore, Md., June 12, 1906.
 Children William Sibley, Jr., Sept. 27, 1907; Richard Isaac, Jan. 22, 1910; Henry Lloyd, Nov. 18, 1911.
 Occupation Teacher.
 Address (home) Paradise Ave., Catonsville, Md.; (business) Friends School, Park Pl., Baltimore, Md.

SINCE leaving college, I have just worked. I have been the head of the Department of Physics and Chemistry in Friends School, Baltimore, Md., ever since. Some say it is an honor to hold the same job so long; others say that the right kind of man, with the proper stuff in him, would have gone on up to something better. I don't know which to believe. At any rate, my salary has increased as the years have passed, and has been sufficient to provide us with a home all our own, and with those comforts which have brought happiness and contentment to our little fireside.

CARROLL DURGIN PIPER

Born Wolfeboro, N. H., May 19, 1880.

STEPHEN RATHBUN

Born New York, N. Y., Sept. 28, 1877.
Parents Milton, Harriet Lee (Fales) Rathbun.
School Dwight School, New York, N. Y.
Degree A.B. 1902 (1903).
Unmarried
Occupation Dramatic Critic.
Address (home) 306 West 112th St., New York, N. Y.; (business) Evening Sun, 150 Nassau St., New York, N. Y.

SINCE January 27, 1915, I have been dramatic critic of the New York Evening Sun, writing under the name of The Playgoer. Like our muse-wooing classmate, Witter Bynner, I, too, have dropped my first name. A bas Hals and Charlies!

The way I sowed my wild oats in my earlier days was by serving five years in the Seventh Regiment, N. G. N. Y. But, like Ernest Howard Crosby, Seventh Regiment veteran of the last generation, I, too, saw the light and the error of my ways. I have been a pacifist, of course, ever since I joined the Socialist Party in 1909, and be sure to put me down as one of those 750,000 Socialists who did not vote for Wilson for President at the 1916 election.

I have put on flesh and am now better looking. I'll be handsome yet!

In my creed, the three cardinal virtues are: the quest of truth, the love of humanity, and the worship of beauty.

Thank Heaven! I am a bachelor. No doubt, if I had married, those cardinal virtues would be: the quest of white lies, the love of one little household, and the worship of a beauty instead of abstract beauty!

God be with you, classmates and comrades (some of you I have never seen and most of you I do not know) for a whole decade until we write again our autobiographic outpourings.

EMMONS RAYMOND

Born Boston, Mass., Jan. 30, 1880.
Parents Henry Emmons, Susan Anloinelle (Murdock) Raymond.
School Milton Academy, Milton, Mass.
Degree A.B. 1902 (1904).
Married Julia Botham Moore, Bayonne, N. J., May 25, 1904; Florence Louise Eddy, Providence, R. I., July 9, 1912.

248 CLASS OF 1902—REPORT V

Children Marion Moore, June 18, 1905; Emmons, Jr., Aug. 17, 1913; Nancy Eddy, May 6, 1915.
Occupation Poultryman.
Address East St., Hingham Center, Mass.

SHORTLY after graduation, I entered the Library Bureau where I remained four years, two and a half being in the sales department and one and a half in the manufacturing end. I left there to go into business with Arthur N. Dilley and M. S. Keith, Jr., under the firm name of A. N. Dilley & Co. Inc. I remained associated with them for about two years and then joined the Gale-Sawyer Company as Vice-President. After remaining with them for two years, I entered business on my own account under the firm of E. Raymond Company, doing a specialty printing business and manufacturing envelopes, boxes, and novelties. This firm continued until the outbreak of the present war, when conditions became such that it was no longer profitable. Shortly after, I purchased the place in Hingham Centre, where I now live and have gone into the production of market eggs and poultry.

MEMBER: Wompatuck Club, Hingham.

CHARLES ALBERT READ

Born Salem, Mass., Jan. 18, 1881.

Address *(home) 11 The Metamora, Clifton, Cincinnati, O.; (business)
University of Cincinnati Library, Cincinnati, O.; (permanent)
7 Buffum St., Salem, Mass.*

I AM still in the old niche, the University of Cincinnati Library. The world wags on—it's been whirring of late. I have neither sought honors nor have they been thrust upon me. Except for my annual report I have not soiled the printed page. Occasionally I write an article anonymously for the University of Cincinnati News but voilà tout. And yet though there is so little to record, the best thing that will ever happen to me, has happened to me since the Decennial. Take heed, ye bachelors, and do likewise.

MEMBER: American Library Association, Ohio Library Association, Harvard Club of Cincinnati, Ohio Valley Poetry Society.

LINCOLN WARE RIDDLE

Born	Jamaica Plain, Mass., Oct. 17, 1880.
Parents	Charles Wisner, Mary Brastow (Ware) Riddle.
School	Hale School, Boston, Mass.
Degrees	A.B. 1902; A.M. 1905; Ph.D. 1906.
Married	Gertrude Hollister Paine, Cambridge, Mass., June 7, 1906.
Children	Eleanor, Oct. 12, 1909; Edward Hollister, Feb. 13, 1916.
Occupation	Associate Professor of Botany, Wellesley College.
Address	(home) 3 Waban St., Wellesley, Mass.; (business) Wellesley College, Wellesley, Mass.

FROM 1903 to 1906 I was a student in biology in the Harvard Graduate School; during my last year there I was an Austin Teaching Fellow in botany. I then became Instructor in Botany at Wellesley College, where I remained through 1909. From 1910 to 1912 I was Curator of the Cryptogamic Herbarium of the New England Botanical Club. Since 1909 I have been Associate Professor of Botany at Wellesley.

Accompanied by my wife and daughter, I spent the year 1912-13 in Europe, the greater part of the time being devoted to study in London, Paris, Geneva, Upsala, and Helsingfors. As a result of trying to see all of Europe and to learn all there was to be known in one year, my wife brought me home on a stretcher and I spent the next eight months with rheumatic fever. I returned to my work in Wellesley College in April, 1914. During the present year, the head of the botany department is absent on leave, and I am in charge of the department. In January and February, 1916, I gave the Ropes Memorial Lectures in Botany at Salem, Mass.; and I have been invited to give a second course this year. In May, 1915, I was elected a Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

PUBLICATIONS: "Contributions to the Cytology of the Entomophthoraceae," Proceedings of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, 1906; Papers on "Lichens in Rhodora," 1909; "The North American Species of Stereocaulon," Botanical Gazette, 1910; Reviews in the Bryologist, 1910 and 1911; "An Enumeration of the Lichens of Jamaica," Mycologia (ined.) 1912. "The Lichens of Bermuda;" "The Genus Parmeliopsis of Nylander;" and three shorter papers on lichens.

MEMBER: Botanical Society of America, Sullivant Moss Society, New England Botanical Club, Boston Society of Natural History, Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and of the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Child Albert Welles, Jr., Oct. 17, 1910.
Occupation Superintendent of Southern Gypsum Co., Inc.
Address North Halston, Va.

FOUR years ago I planted twenty acres in peaches and apples in Southwest Virginia which are very pretty to look at if one is interested in forestry, but have borne no fruit. Hope at our Twenty-fifth Reunion to give some interesting details on "Back to the Soil."

I also have a worn-out farm in Albemarle County that I hope will be blooming like a rose in 1927. See later.

RALPH WALTER ROBBINS

 Occupation Paper manufacturing.
 Address (home) 38 School St., Springfield, Mass.; (business) American Writing Paper Company, Chester Paper Company Division, Huntington, Mass.

AFTER leaving college I started to learn the leather business from the bottom up. After spending several years at the bottom, I decided it was too hard climbing up through a tannery, so looked about for something nearer the top; as yet nothing has appeared. In the meantime I am giving my services at a purely nominal figure to one of the country's infant industries, paper manufacture.

Unmarried

Occupation Stockbroker.

Address (home) 4 East 67th St., New York, N. Y.; (business) 25 Broad St., New York, N. Y.

AFTER separating myself from 1902 and Harvard, and it was a separation, I entered Columbia School of Mines with the Class of '04. Four years of hard work with very little of enjoyment, except memories of 1902 and Harvard, followed. After 1904 I took a position with the Federal Lead Company at Flat River, Mo., under Corey Brayton, '01, and remained there three years, then taking a position with the American Smelting & Refining Co. in New York. The spirit of the '49ers made me give up my job, and with some other men I left for the Nevada gold-fields in 1908, as an ordinary prospector. After drifting around from one boom camp to another, I finally settled in Midas, Nevada, where I located and worked a small gold mine, all my own, way out in the sage brush! My experiences there would fill a book. The year 1911 was an unlucky one for me. I was poisoned, my own cooking did it, had to sell my mine and return home, my health all wrong, just in time to see my father smile his last smile. This broke up my mining career and I joined forces with my brother V. Sydney Rothschild, '91, a member of the New York Stock Exchange, in the brokerage business under the firm name of V. Sydney Rothschild & Co.

Here I am working away, yes, making perhaps a little money and enjoying the life of a bachelor, but not much different from thousands of others. Perhaps I may be added to the honor roll by our Twenty-fifth — I hope so.

Occupation Headmaster.

Address The Choate School, Wallingford, Conn.

DURING the years between 1902 and 1908 I taught at the Hill School, the Adirondack-Florida School, and the Hackley School. In 1908 I accepted the headmastership of the Choate School. During the past nine years I have been developing the Choate School until now there are one hundred and eighty boys — the School's permanent limit as regards numbers, with an equipment which has grown in proportion. There is nothing that the School likes more than visits from Harvard men here under the eaves of Yale: that Choate men are doing things worth while at Harvard is doubtless due to such visits, and the latch-key is always out for the men of 1902.

Unmarried
Occupation Lawyer.
Address (home) 169 Summer St., Malden, Mass.; (business) 84 State St. Boston, Mass.

AFTER graduation from the Law School and admission to, practice in Massachusetts, I took up the practice of the law at 84 State Street, Boston, where I am still located and practising. Finding that I had ample time to devote to things outside of the practice of the law, I entered with considerable energy into local political and social affairs in the city of Malden, the place of my residence.

I served as a member of the Malden City Government for two years and then my political ambitions received a most salutary check. My desire to be of some service in the community in which I lived thereupon led me into less exciting, though no less interesting activities, and for some years I was chairman of the Republican Ward Committee and fairly active in local social service work.

I have struggled with the financial problems of a Boys' Club, and lately have spent considerable time in urging the advantages of universal military service and the Plattsburg idea before such clubs and to such individuals as would listen to me.

At present I am a member of the Board of Trustees of the Malden Public Library and of the Malden Savings Bank, director of the Malden Trust Company, president of the recently established Malden Morris Plan Company, and one of the Board of Managers of the Malden Home for Aged Persons. I am a director of the Charlestown Gas & Electric Company, secretary of the Tedesco Country Club of Swampscott, Mass., and treasurer of The Bar Association of the County of Middlesex.

MEMBER: Harvard Club of Boston; The Country Club, Brookline; Tedesco Country Club, Swampscott; Boston Art Club, etc.

 Occupation Farmer.
 Address Sherwood, Ore.

TOO busy living to write history of my life. What more can one ask? — Life on the farm is full of sweet dreams, hard work, plenty of fun, — once in awhile a nightmare to wake you up. I am involved in a wild effort to reduce the high cost of living for the masses by means of state operation of distributive system. — What game offers more sport than politics?

Incidentally we are never too busy in our family to see any members of the Class who wander as far from their natural habitat as this. When you come to Oregon look me up.

CLIFFORD SEAYER

Born Boston, Mass., Sept. 17, 1879.

Parents Francis Eliot, Caroline Fuller (Whitney) Seaver.

School Cambridge Latin School, Cambridge, Mass.

Degrees A.B. 1902; S.B. 1903.

Married Marion Bacon Alley, Cambridge, Mass., Dec. 3, 1912.

Occupation Civil engineer.

Address (home) Lawrence Boulevard, Bayside, N. Y.; (business) Board of Water Supply, 2200 Municipal Bldg., New York, N. Y.

AFTER graduating with the Class of 1902 I returned to the Lawrence Scientific School for one year and received the degree of S.B. in 1903.

My first work after graduation was that of rodman in the maintenance of way department of the Pennsylvania Railroad in the summer of 1903. The Railroad was enlarging its freight and passenger yards about Philadelphia and whatever time I could spare from dodging switching engines was spent in locating track and making surveys for new sidings. From personal observation I can state that the railroad yards about Philadelphia are hotter in summer and colder in winter than any other place on the American continent. After eighteen months of this work I was transferred to the office force, which was then engaged in completing plans for a new freight classification yard at West Philadelphia. In the winter of 1906 I left the maintenance of way department to join the engineering force of the Pennsylvania tunnel extension into New York City, and for two years was engaged as instrument man on the construction of the retaining walls and foundations for the Pennsylvania Terminal.

In 1908 I was transferred to the Long Island approaches of the Pennsylvania tunnels under the East River and, as chief of party, had charge of the line and grade work for a section of tunnels in Long Island City. Although the work on the tunnels was harder and more dangerous than in the maintenance of way department, it was more to my liking and I remained here until the completion of the tunnels in 1910. In 1910 I joined the engineering force of the Board of Water Supply of New York City as assistant engineer and since then have been engaged in preparing plans and specifications for the various contracts under which the Catskill Aqueduct has been built.

My spare time in Philadelphia was spent in travelling about on the Pennsylvania Railroad getting acquainted with the road, because in a few years I hoped to be general manager. In those days an engine cab looked better to me than a parlor car, but times have changed.

Since coming to New York I have spent a good deal of time on the north shore of Long Island where I have joined a tennis club and yacht club and try to get a few gunning trips in the fall. If I live long enough I hope to learn to play golf.

MEMBER: Harvard Club and Harvard Engineering Society, New York; Association of Harvard Engineers, American Society of Civil Engineers, Whiteston Field Club, Bayside Yacht Club.

WALTER RICHARDSON SPOFFORD

Born Hudson, Mass., Feb. 28, 1881.
 Parents Herbert Edmund, Annie Mable (Rawson) Spofford.
 School High School, Hudson, Mass.
 Degree A.B. 1902.
 Unmarried
 Occupation Librarian.
 Address 76 East Monroe St., Chicago, Ill.

WHEN the Decennial Report was issued, I was a member of the staff of the Harvard College Library and there I remained until September, 1914, when I resigned to go to New York. There I enrolled in the Library School of the New York Public Library and spent a year studying library methods, at the same time joining the staff of the Reading Room, in the Reference Division as a part-time assistant. What with the full course of the School and the regular work of the Reading Room I spent a very strenuous year, but found time in between to get a good working knowledge of the metropolis and otherwise enjoy life. During the summer of 1915 I was a full-time assistant in the Library.

On October 1, 1915, I resigned my position to become librarian of the University Club of Chicago, which I have found an agreeable position. On February 19, 1917, my engagement to Miss Miriam M. Larck of Chicago was announced.

MEMBER: Harvard, Prairie, and Chicago Library Clubs, Chicago; Illinois Library Association, American Library Association.

Occupation Physician.
Address 866 Beacon St., Newton Centre, Mass.

SINCE the 1912 report my life has run a reasonably well ordered course, devoted to pleasure enough to keep from going stale and to progress in my profession. I have at last been able to free myself from the annoyances of private practice, and to convince an unsuspecting neighborhood that I am "good for children." In 1914 I was appointed Clinical Instructor in Pediatrics at Harvard, and in 1915 promoted to full Instructor, for which I still receive the enormous salary mentioned in the Decennial report.

In 1916 I was appointed Assistant Visiting Physician to the Children's Hospital. I still like to shoot, fish, smoke cigarettes and occasionally chase the illusive cocktail. I have not yet met THE GIRL. If my luck holds I may be able to pay my Class Fund Pledge by 1932.

PUBLICATIONS: Medical articles about two yearly since last report.

HERBERT CAHOONE THORNDIKE

Born Newport, R. I., Dec. 17, 1879.
Parents Henry Huth, Elizabeth Cahoon (Gorton) Thorndike.
School High School, East Bridgewater, Mass.
Degrees A.B. 1902; LL.B. 1904.
Married Bessie Ellsworth Perkins, East Bridgewater, Mass., April 22, 1908.
Children John Beverly, Dec. 11, 1908; Anita, March 13, 1910; Constance, May 16, 1911; Herbert Cahoon, Jr., April 9, 1913; James Otis, March 14, 1916; Florence, March 14, 1916.
Occupation Lawyer, Special Justice.
Address (home) Union St., East Bridgewater, Mass.; (business) 172 Main St., Brockton, Mass.

I ATTENDED Harvard Law School and after graduation started, the practice of law in East Bridgewater in August, 1904. On February 1, 1907 I opened an office in Brockton, Mass., and have practised there ever since.

In October, 1915, I was appointed a special Justice of the Police Court of Brockton. Of late years I have been chairman of the school committee in East Bridgewater; trustee of the Public Library, and am still Town Clerk. I represent the East Bridgewater Savings Bank as local attorney, and the town. In 1913 I organized the East Bridgewater Co-operative Bank, of which I am a director and attorney.

My activities have been localized to an extent which I have considered and regretted. Eventually I plan to open a Boston office and get in touch with my college friends and the different Harvard organizations. My neglect of both has not been a matter of indifference or choice, and I trust that my coming years will give me an opportunity to demonstrate my regard therefor.

MEMBER: Commercial Club, Brockton; Satucket Lodge, A. F. and A. M., East Bridgewater.

DUDLEY TYNG

Born	Osaka, Japan, Oct. 28, 1879.
Parents	Theodosius Stevens, Ida (Drake) Tyng.
School	Karls gymnasium, Stuttgart, Germany.
Degrees	A.B. 1902; A.M. 1904; B.D. (Episc. Theol. School) 1909.
Unmarried
Occupation	Episcopal clergyman.
Address	Milford, N. H.

FOR one year after graduation I remained in the Harvard Graduate School. From 1903 to 1906 I taught classics and modern languages at Holderness School and Milton Academy. From 1906 to 1909 I prepared for the Ministry at the Episcopal Theological School in Cambridge. Right after graduation and ordination I went as a missionary to China, serving under another Harvard man, Bishop Roots of Hankow. My work there was twofold. I taught Church History and elementary philosophy in Boone College, Wuchang, and assisted in various ways in several preparatory schools connected with it. Secondly, after I had learned to talk Chinese I was put in charge of the parochial work of the Episcopal Mission in the northern half of Wuchang. In this district of 150,000 people we built up eventually four parishes out of two already existing. Besides the directly religious work among the Christian membership and non-Christians, these four churches had under their wing two high schools and six grammar schools with a total enrollment of 700.

It was my business to be the leader of the forty Chinese workers who carried on, at an expense to the missionary society of only $1500 a year, this considerable religious and social work. I remained in China as "professor" and "overseer" for six years. In 1915 I returned to America. Being convinced that one of the greatest needs of the educational institutions which the Christian Church is building up in China is for college teachers of the American university standard, I am now working at old Harvard for a doctor's degree in philosophy, taking my thesis and one of my major subjects from the interesting field of Chinese philosophy. In connection with this course of study I have taken the pastorate of the little Episcopal Church in Milford, N. H. When I have finished my studies, I expect to return again to the East.

PUBLICATIONS: Written articles for The Spirit of Missions, the Episcopal missionary magazine, and for the Theological Review of Tokyo, Japan.

MARTIN HARLEY URNER

Born Cincinnati, O., Oct. 7, 1879.
Parents Henry Clay, Maria (Harley) Urner.
School Franklin School, Cincinnati, O.
Degrees A.B. 1902; M.D. (Miami Medical Col.) 1905.
Unmarried
Occupation Oculist, aurist and laryngologist.
Address (home) 1603 East McMillan St., Walnut Hills, Cincinnati, O.;
(business) 2700 Union Central Bldg., Cincinnati, O.

AFTER graduating from The Miami Medical College in 1905 I entered the Cincinnati General Hospital as an interne, where I ended my term of service as a "House Surgeon" in May, 1907. I then secured a position as assistant in the office and private hospital of Dr. J. W. Murphy — a man with a large practice in Cincinnati in the treatment of diseases of the eye, ear, nose, and throat. Before taking this position, I went to Europe for a few months to study in London and Vienna. After working as an assistant for five years, Dr. Murphy and I formed a partnership and now have as our offices and private hospital the twenty-seventh floor of the Union Central Bldg.

My mother and I make our home together in Walnut Hills, two or three miles from the center of Cincinnati.

MEMBER: American Academy of Ophthalmology and Oto-laryngology, Cincinnati Academy of Medicine, American Medical Association, Literary Club of Cincinnati, Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce, Big Brother's Club of the Y. M. C. A., and Advent Canoe Club.

HOWARD RUGGLES VAN LAW

Born Arlington, Ill., June 15, 1878.
Parents Ruggles Benjamin, Katharine (Knight) Van Law.
School Lawrenceville School, Lawrenceville, N. J.
Degrees A.B. 1902; A.M. 1903.
Unmarried
Occupation Investment securities.
Address 5 Nassau St., New York, N. Y.

FROM 1902 until 1910 I taught English in the Washington School for Boys, which was conducted by Louis L. Hooper, Harvard, 1889, and until 1912 I was a Master in Dr. C. Hanford Henderson's Marienfeld Summer Camp. In the fall of 1905 I made a trip to England with Dr. Henderson, who later used some of the incidents of our trip in the first part of his "The Lighted Lamp." In 1908, in company with Percy A. Atherton, Harvard '00, I went to Spain, where he used sign language and I used a foolish phrase book, to the great glee of the natives. From 1910 to 1916 I was connected with the Alonzo O. Bliss Properties and the Alonzo O. Bliss Company of Washington as Secretary-Treasurer of the two organizations. In the spring of 1916 I left the delightful cosmopolitan village of Washington and came to the provincial metropolis of New York, where, under N. F. Glidden, Jr., Harvard '03, I joined forces with Glidden, Lyon and Company.

Occupation Teacher.

Address Morristown, N. J.

YOU will note by my marriage to Rena Seabury Green, with her two charming children, — Rena, age 15, and David, age 9, — that I have married a complete, ready-made family. Why can I not put in a claim for having the class baby? — I must be pretty near the front.

I have been schoolmastering here since 1903 with an absence of two years, 1913 and 1914, when I spent some time in Princeton, N. J., and in Germany and England, studying history and human nature. For a pedagogue I have lasted pretty well and there is still a lot of drive in me.

✠ BRADLEE WILLIAMS

Born Melrose, Mass., April 1, 1879.
Parents William Leonard, Elizabeth Frothingham (Green) Williams.
School Boston Latin School, Boston, Mass.; Waban School, Newton, Mass.
Degree A.B. 1902.
Married Lurena Lucinda Fowler, Greenfield, Mass., Sept. 9, 1907.
Died Springfield, Mass., Nov. 19, 1914.

THE first year after leaving Harvard, Williams worked on a newspaper in Haverhill, Mass. He went to the Springfield Republican as a reporter in June, 1903, and worked up through various positions in the editorial department to the responsible post of news editor, which he held when illness compelled him to leave the office. Outside of his regular work his activities were few, except for two years' service as superintendent of the Sunday School of the Church of the Unity in Springfield.

EDWARD CARY WILLIAMS

Born Vienna, Austria, April 16, 1879.
Parents Harold, Alice (Cary) Williams.

Occupation Coal dealer.
Address (home) Hinckley Road, Milton, Mass.; (business) 40 Central St., Boston, Mass.

WHEN I was graduated, I went to work for the Endicott-Johnson Company. I had been with them at Binghamton, N. Y., for a year and a half, when I returned to Boston to work with the State Street Trust Company, where I remained for five years. I then went to Hanson and Parker, Limited, Boston, coal dealers, leaving them in turn to work with the Staples Coal Company of Boston.

MEMBER: Somerset Club of Boston.

HOLDEN PIERCE WILLIAMS

Born Boston, Mass., April 2, 1879.
Parents Robert Breck, Mary Ellen (Pierce) Williams.
School Roxbury Latin School, Boston, Mass.
Degree A.B. 1902.
Married Anna Dorr Ware, Boston, Mass., June 28, 1916.
Occupation Insurance broker.
Address (home) 130 Abbott Road, Wellesley Hills, Mass.; (business) 120 Water St., Boston, Mass.

THE important event in my life since the previous report has been my marriage on June 28, 1916, to Miss Anna Dorr Ware of Roxbury. We have purchased an attractive new house at Wellesley Hills, Mass., and thoroughly enjoy living in the country.

My insurance business, which I started in 1908, continues as before, but in a larger office at 120 Water St., Boston.

During the past year I have been a member of the Standing Committee of the First Church (Unitarian) in Roxbury.

My outdoor interests have been trips with the Appalachian Mountain Club, tennis, skating, and motoring, and I expect to add the pleasure of having a garden.

MEMBER: Brae Burn Country Club, West Newton, Mass.; Oakley Country Club, Belmont, Mass.; Harvard, Boston City, and Appalachian Mountain Clubs, Boston, Mass.

Beloit, Wis.; (permanent) 112 Milton Ave., Boston, Mass.

SINCE graduation I have had a busy but uneventful life as a teacher and graduate student. After some years spent in secondary schools I broke into college teaching in Vanderbilt University. From there I went to the University of Wisconsin as a combination of student and instructor, leaving there soon to take charge of the work in Romance Languages at Beloit. As my record shows elsewhere, I had in the meanwhile become a family man. I also found time for a trip abroad. I regret that I have been unable to attend Commencement or class reunions, but at that time of the year I have always been busy a long way from Cambridge. At Beloit I have many duties besides teaching. My chief extra-classroom activity has been in connection with athletics; first as graduate manager and now as chairman of the board that controls athletic activities. I have also found myself on the programs of various local or national modern language societies. I am prospering as well as my limited talents permit, and the older I grow the more glad I am that I was able to spend four years as an undergraduate at Harvard.

PUBLICATIONS: Ph.D. thesis published by the University of Wisconsin as a bulletin, Philology and Literature Series, Vol. 5, No. 4; "The Marriage Question in Modern French Drama;" Edition with introduction and notes of Balzac's "La Recherche de l'Absolu" (Oxford Press); Edition with introduction and notes of Sand's "Le Marquis de Villemer" (Oxford Press); Article in Education, Jan. 1914, "The Other Side of the Modern Language Question."

MEMBER: A. F. & A. M., Modern Language Association.

IN May, 1899, I left College to accept a government appointment. For several years I audited customs accounts in the Treasury Department, auditing those of leading ports like Chicago, and at times New York and San Francisco. I resigned to accept a position as auditor for the Phelps-Dodge Company, copper mine and railroad owners, of New York and the Southwest. I went to Arizona for the Company. While in Washington, D.C., I studied at Columbian (now George Washington) University and Columbian Law School. I passed the bar examination and was admitted to practice in Arizona. Later I moved to Los Angeles. For one year I studied law there with a prominent attorney, then passed the bar examination. I was president of several corporations and one of the attorneys for a large land company. I also filled the offices of deputy county assessor for Los Angeles County and special assistant to the county auditor and the county tax collector.

I am now one of the Naturalization Examiners for the New England District, attending court a good part of the time outside of Boston. I still own a home in California but have been East for several years and expect to remain here for some time.

LOUIS RONALD McDONALD

Born Charlestown, Mass., May 23, 1879.

Parents James Athanasius, Annie Sarah (Sprague) McDonald.

School Frye School, Boston, Mass.

Degree (s. 1898-1901); M.D. (Tufts) 1906.

Unmarried

Occupation Physician.

Address c/o Dr. W. J. McDonald, 47 Garrison Road, Brookline, Mass.

IN the spring of 1915, L. R. McDonald, while convalescing from a long illness, made several trips between Boston and Liverpool as surgeon on the Leyland liners Bohemian and Canadian (recently sunk). These ships were transporting horses and war supplies for the Allies. In December, 1915, the British Admiralty took over the Bohemian and she became H.M.S. Bohemian. The personnel of the boat remained the same, although the British Maritime Law made McDonald's transfer difficult.

Since then the Bohemian has done transport duty, running between English ports and Saloniki, Alexandria, and the Greek Islands. Communications from McDonald are received only rarely, but they reflect delight in the adventurous work, and satisfaction in the thought that he is contributing his mite against that power which, from the beginning of the war, he considered a menace to his own country.

EDWIN WALTER MILLS

AFTER graduating from the Lawrence Scientific School in 1902, I spent the summer in the White Mountains, and left early in September for San Francisco en route for the gold mines in northern Korea. These mines are located in the Unsan district and have been operated continuously since 1897. I served in all capacities from assayer and surveyor to superintendent of the two largest camps during the three and a half years I was there. I saw a portion of the early part of the Russo-Japanese War, and had a few thrilling experiences, being held up by Japanese troops. One of the pleasant memories of that period was a visit to the mines by our hustling Class Secretary and E. Bowditch, '03. They thoroughly enjoyed themselves, and I was sorry to see them depart.

In the spring of 1906 I was appointed Superintendent of the Chiksan Mines, about fifty miles south of the capital, Seoul, and I was in charge there until November, 1908, when I was engaged by an English syndicate to prospect and make mine examinations throughout Korea. In this way I was fortunate enough to visit all thirteen provinces, and I had a most unusual and highly interesting experience aside from my professional work.

Most of the years 1909 and 1910 were spent in prospecting and mine examination work in Korea and Japan. I also acted as metallurgical engineer for the German syndicate operating the German Gold Mines. The autumn of 1910 and the spring of 1911 were spent in making mine examinations in Japan.

In the spring of 1911 I was engaged to take charge of the prospecting work on the Suan Concession, an area of some 200 square miles, about 120 miles north of Seoul. This work was both arduous and interesting and I was fortunate enough to discover a very promising gold and copper prospect, which after two years' steady work I developed into the largest gold and copper mine in Korea. From 1913 to the first of January, 1917, I was in charge of this new mine and saw it become a very profitable one.

In January, 1916, I presented a paper on "Gold Mining in Korea" before the Korea Branch of the Royal Asiatic Society, which comprised an account of the history of gold mining in Korea from 1193 B.C. to the present time. During the year I was elected a Fellow of the American Geographical Society and of the Royal Geographical Society of London. I have another paper in preparation on the "Mineral Resources of Korea," but am not certain when I shall be able to present it.

In April, 1916, I was granted leave of absence until January 1, 1917, and, after a short trip through China and Japan, I arrived at San Francisco on the first of June. After an absence of almost fourteen years it surely was a revelation to me in many ways to see the new sights, to say nothing of styles, all the way across from San Francisco to New York.

I arrived in Cambridge on the morning of June 21 and saw the Elis go down to defeat in the ball game that afternoon. Next day at Commencement I surely had a great welcome from old class and college mates. The following day I had the great pleasure of witnessing the boat races at New London, and lost my voice in showing my appreciation of the new record for the river made by the Varsity crew.

During the summer and autumn I travelled through different mining regions in Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, Missouri, Michigan, and California. I saw all the football games, and left Boston for San Francisco on Dec. 28, 1916. I sailed from San Francisco on January 26 for Korea via Japan, Manila, and China.

While at home I decided to start out for myself on my return to the Orient, and shortly after the first of the year I shall hang out my shingle in Peking as a consulting mining engineer. J. F. Manning, '03, will be associated with me in this new venture.

As far as I have been able to plan ahead I fully expect to sail from Yokohama in May, bound for the reunion of the good old Class of 1902 in June.

I am still single, but have not given up hope.
